AN OPEN LETTER #5 TO THE GOVERNORS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SOVEREIGN STATES

Gentlemen:

Council for Statehood

Under the officially proclaimed threats of "dire peril" and "lo twilight", every man or woman worthy American citizenship should search heart and conscience to determine his own attitude toward Constitution of the United States. Should it have been slowly steadily rejected by evasion by the Party of the Second Part, Federal Agency - for ANY reason? Is the Party of the First Part the States - guilty of CONDONMENT in permitting the evasions? Are the people to be ignored in this situation? We submit that the Bureaucrats of the Federal Agency KNOW the people would NEVER agree to what they have done - are doing - and intend to do. Many of them have plainly said so. They ADMIT the people would OPPOSE "Foreign Aid" as they administer it. They ADMIT the people would OPPOSE much of their military strategy if they could vote on it. They KNOW the people, - whether they wish to retain the Constitution or not, - would OPPOSE the whole pattern and plan of the Federal Agency if they had a way to find out what it has been and still is. That is the reason the descendants of, and successors to, the Federal Reserve creators have acquired control of Press and Education.

The "Invisible government" of International Finance has been recognized by every INFORMED Constitutionalist in the past hundred (100) years, but they were never able to identify it. It was never understood by anybody except a few such men as Dr. Emanuel Josephson (Rockefeller Internationalist) and Morris A. Bealle (House of Rockefeller), until the Great Conspiracy was TRAPPED at a meeting on St. Simon's Island, Georgia, in 1957, - that the Robber Barons had adopted the "Intelligencia" of the Socialist ("communist") WORLD REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT. This W. R. M. is reaching its climax, as may be seen, in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America. And to those of us who prefer the United States of America to a WORLD EMPIRE of MASTER and SLAVE, - this IS a time of "dire peril". The greatest "peril" of all ages was ignorance. The "dire peril" of today was expressed many centuries ago by the Prophet Isaiah (Chapter 5, Verse 13), "Wherefore my people have gone into captivity because they have no knowledge".

Gentlemen, this whole scheme for WORLD EMPIRE was ~~as any~~ successful movement of world-wide proportions would have to be. And, as you know - the most practical thing in the world is ~~money~~. It is a matter of simple common sense - that the ENSLAVEMENT of a third of the world MUST cost money - more money than there is on earth. And so the Peoples' credit had to be pledged. Or at least - the attempt has been made to pledge the credit.

Most of you have been unaware of the existence of a WORLD REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT, but few are unaware of the fact that anti-"communist" countries - the FRIENDS of the United States and of the American form of government - have been going down to defeat as the Federal Agency takes the side of chaos and disorder:- Indo-China - Viet Nam - Poland - Hungary - Dominican Republic - Cuba - Katanga - and always in the end - Russia. All this is of DIRE import to the States and the people in the States. And, strange as it may seem, - the root of this WHOLE thing is the Central Banking System UNCONSTITUTIONALLY created by the Federal Agency. Incidentally, this Central Banking System no longer claims to be part of the Federal government - as they did for so many years. They now claim to be the Fiscal Agents of "the government". There are many among the informed who hold that THEY ARE THE GOVERNMENT. They have taken over the Federal Agency created by the States. Of this, you, the duly elected representatives of the States, will be judge.

Congressman McFadden watched this thing grow and at the time he made his great speech - and IMPEACHMENT, in Congress, he made one (1) statement of horrendous importance. We have charged that the so-called Central Banking System had ALWAYS bred war and unpayable debt. Congressman McFadden's speech was made in 1934 - FIVE (5) full years before the invasion of Poland which lighted the fuse for World War Two (2). Adolph Hitler had been trying for several years to organize a political party in Germany but had little success until mysterious financing during 1932 put him over, - and on January 30th, 1933, President Von Hindenberg made him Chancellor. This was just about a month before the inauguration of Franklin D. Roosevelt. For those interested, you may read about the trials and tribulations of pre 1932 Hitler in Schirer's "Rise and Fall of the 3rd Reich".

The WORLD REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT is NO respecter of persons - it builds them up - uses them - eliminates them - RUTHLESSLY. What matters here is that FIVE (5) years before the invasion of Poland, Congressman McFadden had NO possible way of KNOWING what was to come. That portion of his speech, which we quote next, was inspired by his ire against the shipping of gold out of the country in the very depth of the great depression - which by law, resulted in contraction of the money supply at the ratio of four (4) to one (1) - and was the real and the ONLY cause of the "Depression". In the booklet (price twenty-five (25) cents) "The Federal Reserve in Congress", - Page 16, - Mr. McFadden's speech continues:- "On April 27, 1932, the Fed outfit sent $750,000 belonging to the American bank depositors in gold to Germany. (Page 142 - 1962 World Almanac - for what it is worth states - 'President BANNED gold exports April 19th, 1933'). A week later another $300,000 in gold was shipped to Germany. About the middle of May $12,000,000 in gold was shipped to Germany by the Fed. Almost every week (in 1934) there is a shipment of gold to Germany".

In the light of these charges, WHO would you say FINANCED Hitler? WHO prepared Germany for World War Two (2)? Mr. McFadden says the "Fed outfit" was shipping out the gold confiscated by Roosevelt from Americans on the pretext it was to be hoarded by the "government" to "stabilize the dollar". And for every dollar of gold shipped out, four (4) dollars' worth of currency had to be taken out of circulation until we went off the gold standard entirely. Then the "government" began grinding out BILLIONS of dollars' worth of BONDS traded to the Federal Reserve in exchange for their unsecured I.O.U.'s (Federal Reserve Notes), HUNDREDS of BILLIONS of which became due and "refunded" because the "government" could NOT pay, - and quite obviously NEVER intends to pay them.

To digress from the McFadden IMPEACHMENT speech briefly - need we remind you WHO financed the OTHER SIDE - England, France and Soviet Russia in World War Two (2)? Was it NOT generally understood that, prior to Pearl Harbor, it was the Morgan group of the "Fed outfit" which handled this business? The financing of BOTH SIDES was even more obvious in World War One (1). They were so sure of their League of Nations then they did not bother to cover up.

Representative McFadden went on to quote what others in responsible positions of government had said, - Representative Crozier of Ohio, - "By making money artificially scarce (like shipping it to Hitler - ed.) interest rates throughout the country can be arbitrarily raised and the bank tax on all business and cost of living increased for the profit of the banks owning these Regional Central Banks and without the slightest benefit to the people. The twelve (12) corporations cover the whole country and monopolize and use for private gain - every dollar of the public currency and all public revenue of the United States. Not a dollar can be put into circulation among the people by their government, without the consent of, and on terms fixed by, these twelve (12) private money trusts".

McFadden - "In defiance of this and all other warnings, the proponents of the Fed created the twelve (12) private credit corporations and gave them an absolute monopoly of the currency of these United States - not of the Fed Notes alone, - but of all other currency! The Fed Act providing ways and means by which the gold and general currency in the hands of the American people could be obtained by the Fed in exchange for Fed Notes - which are not money, - but promises to pay".

Gentlemen, - when the "government" turns over a billion dollars' worth of bonds for the I.O.U.'s of the Fed, - should the People pay off those bonds? If so, - should the Fed then pay off their I.O.U. I.O.U.'s? If they did, we would be "square with the board". We would not owe any debt. The big catch here is that their I.O.U.'s come back into their own hands and are BURNED - extinguished. Ours are piled up in their warehouses, draining away the earnings of the people in the States in interest payments with this highly questionable debt hanging like a sword over our thoughtless heads.

Representative McFadden again, - "The United States has been ransacked and pillaged. Our structures have been gutted and only the walls are left standing. While this crime was being perpetrated, everything the world could rake up to sell us was brought in here at our expense by the Fed until our markets were swamped with unneeded and unwanted imported goods priced far above their value and made to equal the dollar volume of our honest exports, and to kill or reduce our favorite balance of trade. As Agents of the foreign central banks the Fed try by every means in their power to reduce our favorable balance of trade. They act for their foreign principals and they accept fees from foreigners for acting against the best interests of these United States. Naturally there has been great competition among foreigners for the favor of the Fed.

Mr. Speaker, on the 13th of January of this year I addressed the House on the subject of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. In the course of my remarks I made the following statement: In 1928 the member banks of the Fed borrowed $60,598,690,000 from the Fed on their fifteen-day promissory notes. Think of it. Sixty billion dollars payable on demand in gold in the course of one single year. The actual amount of such obligations called for six times as much monetary gold as there is in the world. Such transactions represent a grant in the course of one single year of about $7,000,000 to every member of the Fed.

Is it any wonder that American labor which ultimately pays the cost of all banking operations of this Country has at last proved unequal to the task of supplying this huge total of cash and credit for the benefit of the stock market manipulators and foreign swindlers?

In 1933 the Fed presented the staggering amount of $60,598,690,000 to its member banks at the expense of the wage earners and tax payers of these United States. In 1929, the year of the stock market crash, the Fed advanced $58,000,000 to member banks.

In 1930 while the speculating banks were getting out of the stock market at the expense of the general public, the Fed advanced them $13,022,782,000. This shows that when the banks were gambling on the public credit of these United States as represented by the Fed currency they were subsidized to any amount they required by the Fed. When the swindle began to fall, the bankers knew it in advance and withdrew from the market. They got out with whole skins -- and left the people of these United States to pay the piper.

Mr. Chairman, last December, I introduced a resolution here asking for an examination and an audit of the Fed and all related matters. If the House sees fit to make such an investigation, the people of these United States will obtain information of great value. This is a Government of the people, by the people, for the people. Consequently, nothing should be concealed from the people. The man who deceives the people is a traitor to these United States.

The man who knows or suspects that a crime has been committed and who conceals and covers up that crime is an accessory to it. Mr. Speaker, it is a monstrous thing for this great nation of people to have its destinies presided over by a traitorous government board acting in secret concert with international usurers.

Every effort has been made by the Fed to conceal its powers -- but the truth is -- the Fed has usurped the Government. It controls everything here and it controls all our foreign relations. It makes and breaks governments at will.

No man and no body of men is more entrenched in power than the arrogant credit monopoly which operated the Fed. What National Government has permitted the Fed to steal from the people should now be restored to the people. The people have a valid claim against the Fed. If that claim is enforced Americans will not need to stand in the bread line, or to suffer and die of starvation in the streets. Women will be saved, families will be kept together, and American children will not be dispersed and abandoned.

Here is a Fed Note. Immense numbers of these notes are now held abroad. I am told that they amount to upwards of a billion dollars. They constitute a claim against our Government and likewise a claim against our peoples' money to the extent of $1,300,000,000 which has within the last few months been shipped abroad to redeem Fed Notes and to pay other gambling debts of the traitorous Fed. The greater part of our money stock has been shipped to other lands".

In our next letter, we will tell you what Honorable Wright Patman, new Chairman of the Banking and Currency Committee has to say about the Federal Reserve System. Then we will show you how the Central Bank group has figured in Three (3) Wars and the subjugation and destruction of our anti-"communist" friends and the triumph of our enemies. The story of the Fed is a long one, but, we hope, NOT boring.

Very respectfully,

OPEN LETTER #34 TO THE GOVERNORS AND LEGISLATORS OF
THE SOVEREIGN STATES

Gentlemen:

The PEOPLE of the United States have common goals: PEACE, SOL-VENCY, PROSPERITY, SECURITY, - and in that order. Under present conditions in Washington there is little chance that such goals will ever be achieved. We must have a change.

We have told you that the majority of the Council for Statehood are re-settled Northerners, - re-constructed Yankees. As such we feel that we can objectively discuss the present racial troubles, - and perhaps suggest some answers. We know from our own experience that the people of the Northern states have NO KNOWLEDGE of the frightful, the vindictive and unnecessary atrocities committed against the South during the "Reconstruction". And in order that you may JUSTLY evaluate this situation, - you should know what we have learned since we came South. It would appear that the suppression of History has been a way of life in this country for a long time. It has been ONE HUNDRED YEARS since the Civil War.

actually did insist upon DISENFRANCHIZING THE WHITE SOUTHERNER and giving the vote to the Negro.

ENCLOSURE

This was done after the South had been defeated,- after the troops had burned and destroyed all they could find to destroy. Then the Carpet Baggers began to move in and the poor defeated and disorganized people were literally ROBBED by these vultures in order to get enough to eat and to feed the freed slaves,- most of whom had never been off the plantations on which they were born, and who had NO PLACE TO GO,- and no way to earn a living in other surroundings. Gentlemen, when an uninformed American begins to learn what the politicians of the North did to their own countrymen,- NOT THE PEOPLE of the North,- for they did not know anything about it,- it is difficult to look a Southerner in the face. This is what happens when "the people have no knowledge". This is what happens when HISTORY is distorted and suppressed.

In the matter of slavery,- the importation of the Negroes into the United States to be sold as chattels,- the North was at least as guilty as the South. The slave trade was conducted almost entirely by New Englanders, and it was only when slave labor proved unpopular, due to sickness and death attributable to the cold climate,- that these New Englanders began selling the slaves to the South.

It is true that there were brutal slave owners in the South,- but these were in a very small minority. At this same time Northerners held BOND and INDENTURED SERVANTS whose lot was no better than that of slaves. In many respects it was worse, because these indentured were Christian and civilized people and acutely sensitive to the un-Christian treatment accorded them.

In the matter of slavery and of cruelty the North was equally guilty with the South. Northerners bought the slaves originally, transported them, then sold them for profit. Southerners bought them and worked them. This was used as EXCUSE for the fomenting of the Civil War. And when that war was over, the South, defeated and desperate and tragically impoverished, was left to carry the burden of the liberated slaves ALONE. This was the REAL beginning of the "Race Problem". It should never have been. The North at that time, should have made provision for re-settlement or maintenance of the newly freed slaves. But instead, they continued to heap misery and retribution upon the Southerners and left to them to find a way to support themselves and the Negroes who had become doubly dependent upon them.

For ONE HUNDRED YEARS the South has carried this burden,- they have learned to live with it; they have managed to create a good living,- good education, good relations between the races. They have done it in the only way possible for them to live with it. The South has RISEN again,- and now we see the Federal Government starting all over.

The South has HAD THE EXPERIENCE,- they know that where the Negro population equals or exceeds the white population,- the VOTE could spell disaster for BOTH BLACK AND WHITE. The picture on the first page should start a just man thinking. If there were to be equal franchise in the States or the Counties where the Negroes were in the majority, they would, naturally, elect their own to all offices. And you may be sure,- there would still be an abundance of present-day Carpet Baggers around to exploit the situation.

Now, you in the North,- just consider what would be your own attitude if you were suddenly faced with such a situation. What would you do, if the TAX ASSESSOR, the TAX COLLECTOR and the TAX SPENDERS were all people who owned nothing,- who paid little, if any taxes. It would sound just lovely to say, "Well, we believe in "democracy", we would just have to put up with it". But down in your hearts you KNOW you would be trying to find a way out,- ANY WAY OUT. And you know further, that once you had been driven from your homes and your communities,- it would not be long before the Negroes would be right behind you. They could not do otherwise. They are just not ready for the "affluent society", for the responsibilities of the "Industrial Revolution". Thus the Race Problem becomes one of plain common sense, one of practical economics and of practical politics.

When the Civil War was over we feel that the Negroes should either have been re-settled in the Continent from which they or their ancestry had been shanghaied OR the States should have accepted them in ratio to their populations. If that had been done there would never again have been any Race Problem.

Today Negroes constitute just about 10% of the population,- and the vast majority are located in the South. Before the "Deals", when the South planted unlimited acreage in cotton, tobacco and other agricultural crops,- the Negro had a good market for his services; he, in many cases,- had his own prosperous little farm. Now that the South has been stripped of this power of production by governmental edict,- there is a real scarcity of opportunity in the agricultural field in which the Negro was most adept.

And once more we have the North-instigated Race Problem. There is a Race Revolution; both Negroes and Northern Whites are demanding that the Negro be given Racial Equality. The South FOR A HUNDRED YEARS has done the best she could with the problem. We think that in view of the fact that the South had to rebuild from scratch and to carry the unequal burden placed upon her by the North, the South has done a magnificent job.

If you doubt this,- just take a few hours off on a Sunday, and make a chart from the World Almanac, showing the number of institutions of HIGHER LEARNING the South supports at STATE EXPENSE,- for both White and Negro students. Compare it with ANY OTHER SECTION of the country and you will see what has been done. BUT IT IS NOT ENOUGH for official Washington and the agitators who seek to enforce further burdens upon the South,- but, as you will easily recognize,- are TOTALLY UNWILLING TO CARRY THEIR SHARE OF THE LOAD in their own communities.

We suggest that if the North,- or any other section of the country is SINCERE in this Racial Equality business,- that they RIGHT NOW consider admitting to their States a sufficient number of Negroes to bring their States up to the national average of 10%. Let Racial Equality start at home. Let us test the sincerity of the "equalizers".

This suggestion is in no sense derogatory to the Negro. If he is to be assimilated into society,- we say let the assimilation be complete. Those who yell loudest for Racial Equality will, of course, come up with the self-serving declaration that the Negro should not be moved (re-located) from the land of his birth,- or against his will,-

FOR ANY REASON. Before the "DEALS" got into high gear,- that would have been a legitimate position. But it is so no longer. They are the very people who subscribe to the Urban Renewals,- the Regional Development projects which boldly state that "RE-LOCATION",- resettlement, is good,- and in the works, for ALL the poor and under-privileged who get in the way of THEIR PROGRAMS.

Furthermore, we have the OFFICIALLY PROCLAIMED policy,- in the North-Eastern cities, that WHITE CHILDREN and BLACK CHILDREN should not be denied the BENEFITS of association, one with the other. And in order that the CHILDREN not be DENIED such BENEFITS, they are "bussed" across town in order that White children may get the benefits of association with Negro children,- and vice versa.

If the association is beneficial to CHILDREN,- why not to ADULTS? If it is all right to transport CHILDREN across town to go to strange schools far away from home,- WHY NOT TRANSPORT FAMILIES? It is the BENEFITS OF ASSOCIATION which count,- why deny adults such benefits?

Gentlemen, in the name of PEACE,- we think you should seriously consider a gradual re-location in order that each State have approximately 10% of this under-privileged minority. A mere 10% would not burden anybody. Not really, It would keep the PEACE,- if the Washington agency REALLY WANTS PEACE. It would be assuming a fair share of the tax burden for these people,- and it would,- because it would open up employment facilities,- and permit greater freedom and cultural opportunities for the Negro,- really HELP him to help himself. This he cannot do in the congested areas of the South.

If you shrink from such a suggestion,- if you KNOW your constituency would not approve it,- just think of the South, for a HUNDRED YEARS, starting from the most abject poverty,- dragging itself up and carrying this load at the same time. Think too, of the Southeast Florida area which has accepted into its already over-burdened population,- nearly a QUARTER MILLION Cuban refugees. In Miami alone, one hundred and eighty thousand refugees have REGISTERED, in addition to those who did not register. Think about this seriously, and ask yourselves if you really cannot accept your pro-rata share of the Negro population.

If, upon soul searching consideration, you find that you cannot,- or will not,- then are we asking too much of you that you direct your representatives (?) in Congress, that they let the South alone to continue to wrestle with the problem which you are unwilling to solve in a just and a PEACEFUL manner? Is it to be said of us that we desire PEACE with foreign nations,- but care nothing about PEACE within our own borders?

There is undoubtedly, a great deal of hypocrisy with regard to Race Equality. Much of it is UNCONSCIOUS,- it has not been thought or reasoned out; some of it is CONSCIOUS hypocrisy,- the kind which ABOUNDS in Washington. Consider the City of Washington itself. From the beginning residents of the District of Columbia HAD NO VOTE. Then in recent years it became desirable that the Negroes,- and Whites,- in Washington should vote IN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS. And so we got a law. They vote in Presidential elections ONLY. Why,- if in Presidential elections,- not in City and District elections?

The population of the City of Washington is about 60% Negro. If citizens in Washington had FULL FRANCHISE, every elected official would be Negro. Just as in many Southern Cities and Counties. Now the most vocal of the Democratic Process advocates KNOW why they could not tolerate FREE ELECTIONS in the City of Washington. They,- and in many cases, their families,- live there. They KNOW what the problem would be in Washington; they KNOW they could not live with it; and they KNOW THEY should not be expected to do so. This is the exact same problem much of the South would face if they could have their way. This we insist is PURE HYPOCRISY,- this is CONSCIOUS hypocrisy.

The actions of Congress today are subject to the same influences as were those of "Reconstruction" days. The NATIONAL interest is of no consequence. It would appear that a hundred years ago there was actually a subtly promoted vindictiveness bordering on "hate" among many Northern Congressmen in their attitude toward the South. And in the heat of their unreasonable passion they heaped every conceivable wrong and indignity upon the Southern white people.

And among the indignities was that of DENYING the vote to the white man and granting the vote to the newly freed slaves. This naturally, resulted in the election of slaves to nearly all public offices,- in none of which was the wrong so disastrous as the power to levy and collect taxes from a bankrupt and desperate people. What type of man represented the South in Congress in that day mattered not much more than it does today. It was the LOCAL tax assessors, collectors and spenders which brought about the intolerable situation which terminated with the uprising of the Ku Klux Klan.

Here then is the real heart of the problem in the sections of the South where the Negro population is equal to or exceeds that of the white. We had never heard or thought about this until we became associated with it,- and we feel sure a majority of State officials nation-wide have not either. It is a PRACTICAL consideration and one, we feel which can be adjusted only by extensive re-location of the Negro population. It need not be accomplished immediately or in such fashion as to cause any locality undue hardship. But until it is well under way, we feel that the Southern tradition should be permitted to prevail. The whole nation has lived in this way for a hundred years,- a few more years will not make any great difference.

We will attach hereto a chart showing the number of Negroes who would leave certain States and the number who would be received into certain other States IF racial equality should begin with equal distribution among the States on a population basis. We realize that many of you will be shocked that anybody should suggest to you that YOUR STATE voluntarily agree to accept these people. But in all fairness, and in the interest of RACIAL PEACE in this Country,- we ask you to give sober consideration to this problem and to the burden so long carried by the South. And if you are still unwilling to accept a fair proportion into your States, PLEASE contact your Congressmen and Senators and tell them about this,- and COMMAND THEM to put a stop to this intolerable agitation BEFORE THERE IS CIVIL WAR,- and leave the South alone to handle the problem the best way they can,- in the ONLY WAY it can be handled.

As we told you,- a few days before the assassination of the President, the Attorney General had appeared before the Judiciary Committee of the House, then considering a "Civil Rights" Bill, and he begged them to tone it down. The President and other high officials of government stated that in its THEN present form, it was too drastic and would not pass. And so the bill was re-written and the propaganda mills have been declaring that it has been watered down.

To you who have faith in your Congressmen and Senators and in the "free" press, it may, and we hope it will,- come to you as a distinct shock to learn just what has happened,- as it is reported by SIX MEMBERS of the House Committee on the Judiciary. Their joint statement is written in a pamphlet distributed FREE by the Coordinating Committee of the Fundamental Freedoms, Inc., Suite 520, 301 First Street, N. E., Washington, D. C. This shocking document should be in the hands of every State Representative;- for if this bill passes,- its effects upon the States and the People in the States and especially upon ALL business people, will be nothing short of devastating. We urge that BEFORE the damage is done, you learn for yourselves just what is proposed in this bill,- and as Representatives of the States, we feel you will be disgusted at the measures adopted by Washington officials which, we believe, if it were possible to IMPEACH anybody, should lead to wholesale impeachments in this case.

Under the title "Unmasking the Civil Rights Bill" the following Congressmen present their dissenting views: E. E. Willis, E. L. Forrester, Wm. M. Tuck, Robert T. Ashmore, John Dowdy, Basil L. Whitener. The pamphlet begins with this opening statement: "The reported bill is not a 'moderate' bill and it has not been 'watered down'. It constitutes the greatest grasp for Executive Power conceived in the 20th Century". Then begins a series of "questions" and "answers" from which we will quote.

QUESTION: Was the Civil Rights Bill railroaded through the House Judiciary Committee?

ANSWER: This legislation is being reported to the House without the benefit of any consideration, debate or study of the bill by ANY sub-committee or committee of the House and without ANY MEMBER of any committee or subcommittee being granted an opportunity to offer amendments to the bill. This legislation is the most radical proposal in the field of Civil Rights ever recommended by any Committee of the House or Senate.

It was drawn in SECRET MEETINGS held between certain members of this Committee, the Attorney General and members of his staff and certain select persons, to the exclusion of other Committee members.

As stated above, the full-committee substituted for H.R. 7152 was railroaded through the Committee on the Judiciary WITHOUT AN OPPORTUNITY by members of that Committee to discuss, debate or amend the 56 page mimeographed document was being forced through the Committee WHOLLY WITHOUT STUDY (and this is how we got the UN Charter-ed), it was hailed as "moderate" legislation and as a "compromise" when in truth and in fact it was no less extreme and vicious than the sub-committee proposal, (which Bobby & Company had labeled "too tough"-ed).

In coordination with these statements, the reported bill was DENOUNCED publicly by Civil Rights political pressure groups for the apparent PURPOSE OF creating the impression that the substitute measure was, in fact, a "watered down" version of the unacceptable subcommittee proposal.

Now that we, as Members of the Committee have had some opportunity to compare the reported bill with the subcommittee proposal, we find that the bill, as reported, is no compromise at all. It actually broadens and strengthens many powers conferred upon the Attorney General in the subcommittee proposal and grants new, sweeping and unlimited authority to the President, while retaining all the most vicious and harsh provisions of the subcommittee proposal."

QUESTION: What will Federal Inspectors dictate to you - or else you will be penalized and go to jail?

ANSWER: In depth, the revolutionary meaning of this act is almost beyond description. It cannot be circumscribed, it cannot be said that it goes this far and no farther. The language written into the bill is not of that sort. It has open end provisions that give it whatever depth and intensity one desires to read into it. In the language of the Bill, "The President is authorized to take such actions as may be appropriate to prevent....(Sec. 711 (B)) and "Each Federal Department and Agency.... shall take action to effectuate..." (Sec. 602)". This vests, of course, almost unlimited authority by the President and his appointees to do whatever they desire.

It is, in the most literal sense revolutionary, destructive of the very essence of life as it has been lived in this country since the adoption of our Constitution. Because this is true the undersigned members of this committee believe it wise to demonstrate by example, the effects of this legislation on people; to demonstrate by example, the meaning of lost liberty; to demonstrate by example, the power in this bill to dominate the lives of even the least of us."

The pamphlet then goes on to illustrate NINE examples, - in considerable detail, - among them being: "If this bill is enacted, the farmer, regardless of the number of his employees would be required to hire people of all races, without preference for any race. If experience has taught the farmer that a member of one race is less reliable than a member of another race, does less for his pay, he will no longer be allowed to hire those he prefers for this reason. If he is of the belief that members of one race are more prone to accident, less trustworthy, more neglectful of duties, are, in short, less desirable employees than those of another race, he will no longer be able to exercise his independent judgment. Under the powers conferred by this bill, he may be FORCED TO HIRE ACCORDING TO RACE, to "RACIALLY BALANCE" those who work for him IN EVERY JOB CLASSIFICATION or be in violation of Federal Law.

The penalty for such violation can mean being excluded from every direct and indirect Federal "benefit". It can mean calling in his bank loans, being shut off by blacklisting from the agencies of Government that recruit labor, the right to purchase supplies from farmer-associated businesses, which may, themselves, be dependent in one degree or another on Federal financial assistance....and all other agencies having to do with the Federal financial assistance in the field of Agriculture."

HOMEOWNERS: The right of home owners in the United States to freely build, occupy, rent, lease and sell their homes will be destroyed... Title VI will be construed by the administration to cover "land to be developed for residential use" and "the sale, leasing, rental or other disposition of residential property and related facilities....or the occupancy thereof" whenever there is involved FHA or GA financing, financing by a National Bank or any banking or savings and loan association covered by the FDIC or any other type of Federal financial support" (Executive Order 11063).

It occurs to us that the "RACIAL BALANCE" scheme of the proposed "Civil Rights Bill", is going to bring about a speedy distribution of the Negro population whether or not the States approve it. There are VERY FEW large manufacturing plants or housing development projects in the South. Perhaps as much as 80% of this work is in the North and West, where there are presently VERY FEW negroes.

Now if the millions of unemployed or poorly paid Negroes in the South learn they can go North or West and BY LAW can obtain well paying jobs under protection of the Federal government agents,- there is going to be a flood tide of these people leaving the South. In such case the non-Southern States might well get far more than the 10% we recommend.

The South has educated the Negroes WELL, and they are demanding GOOD JOBS and equal job rights with Whites. The number who could be employed in the South UNDER ANY CURCUMSTANCES is infinitesimal by comparison with employment possibilities in the other States. In fact under this law employment practices in the South would not change much, for we have Negroes employed in all but the RESTRICTED UNION TRADES now. The job opportunities for Negroes will be in the North and the West and that is where they will go. Our only hope is that they will go PEACEFULLY and that Revolution and Civil War will be averted.

We feel that all the People in the United States should be thoroughly INFORMED about what is happening in Washington,- and where these happenings are designed to lead us. Informed people can,- and we think, will,- make SOUND DECISIONS,- which is something their Representatives in BOTH HOUSES of Congress cannot do. And it all adds up to the fact that we need, and must have INFORMED and intelligent men in Washington NEXT YEAR if our national and State interests are to be managed competently.

Investigation reflects that this organization still exists as a mailing facility, disseminating the writings of MARY M. DAVISON and that there is a lack of formal membership or formal meetings with no indication developed of any contemplated violent actions. In view of this, Miami is closing this case UACB.

On July 22, 1964, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Department, furnished the following information.

[REDACTED] stated that several years ago, he was [REDACTED] and during the past several weeks, has had several contacts with [REDACTED] casually in downtown West Palm Beach, Florida. During this contact with [REDACTED] mentioned his connection with an organization known as the Council for Statehood, stating that he is helping a person named MARY M. DAVISON in sending out literature which attacks the liberal actions of the present United States Government. They are endeavoring to get a program of States Rights to offset the Federal Government's usurping of these powers.

b7C

[REDACTED] further stated that [REDACTED] also stated that he was affiliated with MARY DAVISON, also in an organization she called the Conservative Political Association, Post Office Box 3312, West Palm Beach, Florida, (also used for the Council for Statehood) and that this group generally had the same ideas and beliefs as the Council for Statehood.

[REDACTED] described [REDACTED] as a person who affiliates himself with "causes" and while there was nothing in any comments made by [REDACTED] to indicate that these groups were against the United States Government in any way, [REDACTED] felt that this information should be made available to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] did not indicate at any time that any action was being taken to bring the ideas and beliefs of this organization forcibly to the attention of anyone, but indicated that their activities are principally directed to the writing of letters and issuing of pamphlets to be made available to State Legislators to acquaint the states with how the Federal Government is usurping their authority.

[redacted] United States Border Patrol, who has furnished information previously concerning this matter was contacted on July 23, 1964, and he stated that he has had no contact recently with [redacted] but would contact him and advise later. On August 21, 1964, [redacted] stated that he had conversation with [redacted] the previous evening, and [redacted] indicated that he was no longer affiliated with the Council for Statehood; but did know that MARY DAVISON was still sending out her letters and literature, indicating further that there had been no known meetings held and that only five or six of her close friends were now assisting her.

[redacted]

b7C
b7D

[redacted] is aware that Mrs. DAVISON is connected with some type of a group or organization who is fighting for State Rights and is very much against Communism.

On August 24, 1964, [redacted] West Palm Beach, Florida, volunteered the following information:

b7C

[redacted] stated that [redacted] the local group of the Sons of the American Revolution [redacted] has had numerous contacts with one of the prominent members of this group, a [redacted] who [redacted] had described as an elderly senile patriarch person.

b7C

[redacted] was seeking voluntary contributions to help pay for the printing and dissemination of some literature being prepared by a MARY DAVISON. [redacted] indicated that he was assisting Mrs. DAVISON in this regard, and that they were endeavoring to get support for a more conservative approach to politics on a national level and to put certain powers back in the hands of the individual states which had been usurped by the Federal Government over the years. [redacted] indicated that [redacted] did not indicate any violent actions of any type, but was extremely critical of the current administration in particularly of the United States Supreme Court Actions. [redacted] stated that [redacted] over the years has expressed a very strong anti-Communist view point, and is certainly not un-American, even though he does have some rather unsound ideas, according to [redacted] opinion. [redacted] was unable to recall the specific identity of the group which [redacted] was representing, but indicated that it was a statehood group or a conservative political group of some kind. Generally by their letters and pamphlets, they were attempting to arouse the individual states to take a stand against the Federal Government's actions. [redacted] stated that while he had no knowledge of this type of organization as professed by [redacted] he felt that the matter should be brought to the attention of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

OPEN LETTER #22 TO THE GOVERNORS AND LEGISLATORS OF THE SOVEREIGN STATES

Gentlemen:

In our last Open Letter we published documented proof that the thing commonly called "Communism" was a gigantic hoax perpetrated by the International Federal Reserve banks of New York and Hamburg, Germany. It was they who "invented" Bolshevism, planned, financed and trained the revolutionaries and sent them into Russia to overthrow the Czar's government and set up the FIRST STATE in the planned World Empire. The bankers later re-named it "Communism" and propagandized the world into believing its headquarters were in Moscow. These are not the local bankers - the International bankers are a breed apart.

It must be apparent to any thinking man that on the day these Bolshevik revolutionaries took over the government of

b7C

Russia, on that day, the International Bankers who paid for the conquest ACTUALLY CONTROLLED THE GOVERNMENT OF RUSSIA. They still do. The "Key" man in that conquest was the Wladimir Olaf Aschberg, referred to on Page 3 of the Arrowsmith documentary as "the head of the Nya Banken in Stockholm and later in 1921, founded the Russian Commercial Bank. Thanks to this institution he became in a sense, the dictator of Soviet finance." And he still is, - this "intermediary between Kuhn Loeb & Company of New York City and the firm of Max Warburg (in Hamburg) when they were financing the Bolshevik revolution of October, 1917." He carried the money-bags into Petrograd and he has handled Russian finances to this day. Lenin, Trotzky, and all their followers are gone. Only the Banker's Agent remains. The symbol of the unbroken rule of the Wall Street and Hamburg Bolsheviks. In the spring of 1963 Mr. Aschberg made one of his very rare trips outside Russia. He had business in Berne, Switzerland. Conte de Saint-Aulaire, in "Geneva Versus Peace," said it, - "Bolshevism ("Communism" - ed) is the colt of the New York Bankers." It had nothing to do with Russians or Marx or Engels peasants. And all this talk about what Khrushchev, Moscow or the Kremlin says or intends to do is sheer poppycock. They will all do what the Revolutionary Capitalists of New York and Paris tell them to do or Aschberg will pull the money-plug on them. Just as the Chief Executive, Congress and Washington will do what the same people tell them to do or their No Party agent Dillon, of Dillon, Reed & Co. will pull the plug on us.

Has it ever occurred to you to wonder WHY Russia needed an Iron Curtain? Who was trying to hide what? The only thing they really needed to hide was WHO ACTUALLY CONTROLS RUSSIA and all her satellites and the whole World Revolutionary Movement.

Lenin, Trotzky, Stalin, Khrushchev - none of them could run a peanut stand; none of them could control a dog-sled. They were all "experts" of the big mouth. But somebody has to tell them what to say on the rare occasions when their mouthings do not originate in the press rooms of New York. On this basis then, let us take another look at the "communism" which has our intellectual leaders so frightened. They claim they cannot defend this still great nation. Nor do they dare permit us to defend ourselves.

RE:

b7C

Continuing with the story of the Revolutionary Capitalists who took over the government of Russia, we find them, after the failure of the League of Nations, through which they had hoped to set up World Government, - forming a close working association with the Intellectual Socialist deserters from the Workers' Revolutionary Movement. The new organization became the Council on Foreign Relations.

They would await another day, another war and another League (U.N.) Charter for World Government. Following the First World War, Bolshevism ("Communism") was firmly entrenched in Russia and a few surrounding states. Following the Second World War, in which she had been a badly battered "ally," Russia emerged in control of half the earth's surface. The money and "moral" support of the Central Bank countries was evident in every "Communist" CONQUEST of the anti-"Communist" countries, but nowhere was it so clear as in China where about fifty members of the Institute of Pacific Relations, most of whom were in the U. S. State Department, engineered the overthrow of the Government of China, using the fabulous sums of money appropriated by OUR Congress (for at that time it was still OUR Congress) to protect and defend the anti-"Communist" Government of China.

The Institute of Pacific Relations was then the PRINCIPAL BRANCH of the Council on Foreign Relations, as the U. N. is principal branch now, - all of its male members being also members of the Council on Foreign Relations: Alger Hiss, Adlai Stevenson, Wm. Remington (who went to jail with Hiss), Laughlin Currie, Owen Lattimore, Philip Jessup, Dean Rusk, Arthur H. Hays (the partner of John Foster Dulles), Stephen and Lawrence Duggan, Frederick Vanderbilt Field, Eustace Seligman, Harry Dexter White (who shipped our money plates to Russia, - and they never came back), John Stewart Service, V. Frank Coe, Adolph A. Berle. Some of them went to jail, some fled the country, some committed suicide or died mysteriously, others were freed by friendly Courts. And fabulous sums of money were spent on their defense. During the sell-out of China, the Rockefeller, Ford and Carnegie Foundations contributed millions of dollars to the Institute of Pacific Relations. They (C.F.R.) ASSIGNED their Institute of Pacific Relations to force "communism" on China. And the record is fairly clear too, that C.F.R. Arthur Hays Sulzberger's group and his New York Times was assigned the job of "communizing" Cuba. When the several American Ambassadors to Cuba were instructed to get their briefing on how to scuttle anti-"communist" Batista and set up the long-time "communist" Revolutionary leader Castro, from New York Times Cuban Representative, Herbert Matthews, we think the C.F.R. involvement is clear - real clear.

b7C

We believe you should thoroughly understand that the thing called "communism" is, and always has been a gigantic "HOAX." The Red Herring "Communist Party" is part of the scheme to confuse the People. Away and by far, the greatest collection of traitors ever rounded up in this country were the Institute of Pacific Relations mob, not one of whom was a member of the "Communist" Party. They ALL came from the Council on Foreign Relations and the establishment of "Communism" in Asia was their assignment. They accomplished their mission, - they were exposed and indicted, and the whole thing was hushed up by the Nation's Press. Just as the New York Times assignment in Cuba is being covered up - as much as possible.

Gentlemen, we must NEVER allow Cuba to be hushed up. It has become part of the C.F.R. - Soviet World Empire and with the C.F.R. firmly in control of the Federal Agency we cannot accept the fact that the Cuba of today is exactly what they want - they planned it that way. And the balance of Latin America can be pushed behind the same Iron Curtain - by telephone. Bosch, the C.F.R. "communist" agent is entrenched in the Dominican Republic and he and Betancourt, (Venezuela), Castro's long-time "communist" Revolutionary pal, are putting the squeeze on Duvalier, the expiable ruler of Haiti.

There is very little, if anything, in the long record of treason to our country which shows any real evidence of working association between Russia and the "Communist" Party, U. S. A. Harry Dexter White (or Weiss), an under-secretary in the Treasury Department under Henry Morgenthau, Jr., both of whom were members of the Council on Foreign Relations, did ship the money-plates to Russia. And, as usual, Committees of the United States (?) Senate "investigated." There were many volumes of testimony, including that of F.B.I. agents, - taken. And, as usual, the whole thing was hushed up. But this was NOTHING, compared with other things that went on through the Great Falls, Montana, Air Base which also was investigated and hushed up.

Informed people know there is no use expecting Congress or Senate to do anything. Many good men, over the years, have served on these investigating committees, but were helpless before a POKER, many times referred to by them, which CONTROLLED EVERYTHING. These men are no longer around, - they either quit cold, as did Nelson Kiewland and Jensen, - or they died. Remembering ALWAYS that it was the declared intent of the Rockefeller Foundation, as revealed in their 1946 Annual Report to "prevent the journalistic de-bunking of World War Two such as that which followed World War One," by appropriating vast sums of money to the Council on Foreign Relations. The "history" re-writing teams and propaganda agencies of C.F.R. would carry out the assignment.

You, who are accustomed to the application of common sense in your official activities, will find it difficult to conceive of ANY restrictions in which the Federal Agency, as Party to the Constitutional Contract, would deliberately turn over the money-plates, secret paper and ink to ANYBODY, - even under the most rigid supervision. And yet the Federal Agency did, deliberately turn over MANY PLANE LOADS of this material to the Russians without ANY SUPERVISION, - and those who engineered this insane deal could and did, EXPLAIN IT TO THE APPARENT SATISFACTION OF THE "SENATE." The "explanation" simply stated, was that if WE did not give the Russians our money-plates - ink and paper, - the Russians would ISSUE THEIR OWN CURRENCY in East Germany. How do you like that for "explanation?" If they issued their OWN CURRENCY we would NOT HAVE TO REDEEM IT. And we just could not do that to Russia. Now YOU could have done it, cheerfully, and we could too. But the Federal Agency has ideas diametrically opposite to ours. Why?

RE:

b7C

In our next letter we will tell you of the Treasons committed against the States and People in the States by the VERY highest level of the Federal Agency. Treasons which are labeled "communist" but which were committed by people who NEVER were members of the "communist" Party. The protected Big Shots who did the work of "communism" in an incredible and devastating way. They, under cover of World War Two turned over to Russia - through the Great Falls Air Base, fantastic shipments of plans, maps, chemicals - EVERYTHING necessary for production of the atom bomb. Senate Committees knew all about it. Everything a man could have been expected to do was done by Major George Racey Jordan to warn the American people. Result - Cover-up. Total and complete. As it will always be until, and unless, RESPONSIBLE representatives of the States form their own Un-American Activities Committee and, with the help of the VERY BEST lawyers, consultants and investigators, call in, and hear the people who KNOW and are still available to testify. At least, get their testimony on record - before it is forever too late.

b7C

A characterization of the Council for Statehood is attached hereto. ✓ [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised on October 16, 1964, that she

[REDACTED] stated that the Council for Statehood is the "ultimate organization" and that Mary M. Davison is a "prophet." She stated that she is a volunteer worker and that none of their workers get paid, that they have no members and no officers in the Council for Statehood. She advised that their aim is to restore the Constitution as the law of the land instead of the U. N. Charter which supersedes the Constitution. She stated their organization is one of "ideals and principles to preserve the freedom of our land." She further stated that they do not advocate violence or the overthrow of the Government by violence.

OUTLINE OF COUNCIL FOR STATEHOOD PLAN

FIRST: TO RESTORE OUR CONSTITUTION AS THE LAW OF THE LAND!
(INSTEAD OF U. N. CHARTER WHICH NOW SUPERSEDES THE U. S. CONSTITUTION.)

FIRST STEP - TO REPEAL THE SEVENTEENTH AMENDMENT!
(IN ORDER TO KEEP OUR STATES SOVEREIGN.)

RE:

b7C

SECOND: TO INSTIGATE AN INVESTIGATION OF THE FEDERAL AGENCY AND THE UNITED NATIONS THROUGH THE STATES UNITED!

HOW WE PLAN TO DO THIS:

BY INFORMING 11,000 STATE LEGISLATORS, AND THE GOVERNORS OF THE STATES, OF THE SECRET GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES, (COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS) AND THEIR ACTIVITIES AND TO REPEATEDLY URGE THEM (OUR STATE REPRESENTATIVES) TO USE THE POWER IN THEIR HANDS TO SAVE OUR COUNTRY BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!!

EXPLANATION OF COUNCIL FOR STATEHOOD PLAN!

MAIN OBJECTIVE: TO RESTORE THE CONSTITUTION (THE LAW OF THE LAND) AND PRESERVE THE SOVEREIGNTY (POWER) OF THE STATES AS GIVEN THEM BY THE ORIGINAL CONSTITUTION.

QUESTION: YOU SAY RESTORE! BUT ARE WE NOT COVERED BY THE CONSTITUTION NOW?

A. ANSWER: NO! ARE YOU AWARE THAT WE HAVE TRAITORS IN HIGH PLACES? OUR GOVERNMENT IS BEING USURPED BY THE INTERNATIONAL BANKERS WHO ARE KNOWN AS THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS (C. F. R.) WHICH IS OUR SECRET GOVERNMENT! THIS SYNDICATE IS RESPON-SIBLE FOR THE TRANSFER OF POWER FROM THE STATES TO THE FEDERAL AGENCY AND FOR THE PERVERSION OF
"THE CONSTITUTION!"

RE:

b7C

B. ANSWER: WE HAVE BEEN UNDER THE U. N. CHARTER SINCE 1945!
(REMEMBER - THIS CHARTER WAS ADOPTED AS A TREATY AND THEREFORE SUPERSEDES THE CONSTITUTION!)
WE QUOTE ARTICLE VI OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES AS FOLLOWS: "THIS CONSTITUTION, AND THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES WHICH SHALL BE MADE IN PURSUANCE THEREOF, AND ALL TREATIES
MADE, OR WHICH SHALL BE MADE, UNDER THE AUTHOR-ITY OF THE UNITED STATES, SHALL BE THE SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND; AND THE JUDGES IN EVERY STATE
SHALL BE BOUND THEREBY, ANYTHING IN THE CONSTI-TUTION OR LAWS OF ANY STATE TO THE CONTRARY NOTWITHSTANDING."

C. ANSWER: WE MUST GET OUT OF THE U. N.!!

D. ANSWER: YOU NO DOUBT REALIZE THAT THE SUPREME COURT HAS TAKEN POWERS NOT BELONGING TO THEM UNDER THE CONSTITUTION!!
EXAMPLES - PRAYER DECISION, REAPPORTIONMENT AND CIVIL RIGHTS BILL!)

QUESTION: WHAT IS HAPPENING TO THE CONSTITUTION?

A. ANSWER: IT HAS BEEN AMENDED ILLEGALLY BY THE SUPREME COURT UNTIL IT CAN NO LONGER SERVE THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE!

B. ANSWER: THE 17TH AMENDMENT WHILE LEGALLY ADOPTED
MUST BE REPEALED IN ORDER TO KEEP THE STATES SOVEREIGN!

QUESTION: WHY??

RE:

b7C

A. ANSWER: THIS AMENDMENT HAS CAUSED THE STATES TO LOSE THEIR CONTROL OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE!
(THE BALANCE WHEEL OF THE REPUBLIC!!)

B. ANSWER: THE CONSTITUTION HAD CONFERRED UPON THE SENATE
SPECIAL PEROGATIVES TO BE EXERCISED ONLY
BY SENATORS APPOINTED BY THE STATES!

SPECIAL POWERS CONFERRED BY CONSTITUTION ON SENATE:

1. POWER TO REVIEW ACTS OF CONGRESS
2. POWER TO TRY ALL IMPEACHMENTS
3. POWER TO CONFIRM OR REJECT APPOINTMENTS
4. POWER TO REPROVE TREATIES (1945 SEVENTEEN-TH AMENDMENT) SENATE APPROVED U. N.
CHARTER WITHOUT SEEING IT!!

QUESTION: HOW HAS THIS AMENDMENT CAUSED THE STATES TO LOSE THEIR CONTROL OF THE SENATE?

ANSWER: ARTICLE I, SECTION 3 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES READS AS FOLLOWS: "THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES SHALL BE COMPOSED OF TWO SENATORS FROM EACH STATE, CHOSEN BY THE LEGIS-LATURE THEREOF."

THE 17TH AMENDMENT (PASSED IN 1913) CHANGES THIS BY JUST FOUR LITTLE WORDS - "ELECTED BY THE PEOPLE."

QUESTION: WHY IS "CHOSEN" BETTER THAN "ELECTED" IN THIS CASE?

ANSWER: THE SENATE WAS SET UP ORIGINALLY TO REPRESENT THE STATES! THE CONGRESS REPRESENTS THE PEOPLE!

RE:

b7C

STATE REPRESENTATIVES (SENATORS) THEN SHOULD BE CHOSEN (OR ELECTED) BY THE STATE LEGISLATURES!! THIS IS A PRIME DETERRENT TO ANY BRIBERY APPARATUS. AND TO ALL CROOKS AND SWINDLERS.

QUESTION: WHAT CAN WE, THE COUNCIL FOR STATEHOOD DO?

A. ANSWER: THE COUNCIL FOR STATEHOOD PLANS TO REMIND THE STATE LEGISLATURES THAT THE STATES ARE THE REAL POWER, BUT THAT THIS POWER MUST BE UTILIZED!!

B. ANSWER: THE COUNCIL FOR STATEHOOD PLANS - TO URGE THE STATE LEGISLATURES TO CONSOLIDATE OR UNIFY THE STATES IN AN ALL OUT MOVE TO INVESTIGATE THE DISGRACE IN THE FEDERAL AGENCY!!

QUESTION: HOW DO WE, THE COUNCIL FOR STATEHOOD, PLAN TO DO THIS??

A. ANSWER: WE NOT ONLY PLAN THIS, BUT ARE ALREADY IN FULL SWING THROUGH OUR WEEKLY "OPEN LETTERS" TO THE STATE GOVERNORS AND LEGISLATORS. THIS MUST BE DONE AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE!

QUESTION: WHAT CAN THE AVERAGE CITIZEN DO?

A. ANSWER: PLENTY!! HE CAN ORGANIZE WITHIN HIS OWN STATE TO BRING THIS MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE AND ESPECIALLY TO OUR STATE REPRESENTATIVES! THIS CAN BE DONE BY MAIL, BY PHONE, BY PERSONAL CONTACT AND BY POLITICAL ACTION!!

B. ANSWER: ONLY OUR STATES AROUSED TO AN UNDERSTANDING OF THESE POWERS, SUPERSEDING THOSE OF THE FEDERAL AGENCY, ACCORDING TO OUR ORIGINAL CONSTITUTION, CAN REALLY SAVE THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA!!

RE:

b7C

C. ANSWER: THE UNITED STATES CANNOT CONTINUE WITHOUT A GOOD BASIC MORAL LAW! WE MUST RESTORE THIS LAW OR ALL ELSE FAILS!!

FOLKS: THE TIME HAS COME TO GET BACK TO THE ROOT, THE FOUND-ATION OF OUR REPUBLIC, THE CONSTITUTION, BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE! COME JOIN WITH US! THIS IS THE WAY!! THE ONLY WAY!!
WE, THE COUNCIL FOR STATEHOOD, FEEL THAT THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA WAS GIVEN TO US BY GOD, AND PATTERNED
AFTER THE TEN COMMANDMENTS!

FOREWORD

The American Establishment - The Council on Foreign Relations -
The King Makers.

This is the secret government which rules the United States.

"The real menace of our republic is the invisible government, which, like a giant octopus, sprawls its slimy length over our city, state and nation. At the head is a small group of banking houses, generally referred to as "International Bankers." This little coterie of powerful international bankers virtually run our government for their own selfish ends."

Mayor J. F. Hylan, - New York - March 26, 1922

"The continued rise and fall of one empire after another has been the result of men struggling for individual freedom and after accomplishing their objective, relinquishing that individual freedom to a central government through laziness and the failure of succeeding generations to accept their individual obligations in the community, state and nation; and in this way allowed the central government to acquire power far beyond the original intent of the people. In this way small groups vested with great wealth have been able to secure control of these central governments and direct their actions for the benefit of the few at the expense of the masses."

Carlton A. Barrett, - "The Road Ahead."

On October 18, 1961, the NEWS & COURIER, of Charleston, South Carolina, stated in an editorial:

"To understand the United States today it is necessary to know something about the Establishment . . . Most citizens don't realize it exists, yet the Establishment makes its influence felt from the President's Cabinet to the professional life of a young college teacher who wants to obtain a foundation grant for research. It affects the nation's policies in almost every area . . . The Establishment is a general term for those people in finance, business, and the professions, largely from the Northeast, who hold the principal measure of power and influence in this country irrespective of what administration occupies the White House."

• • • • •

"Today the path to total dictatorship in the United States can be laid by strictly legal means, unseen and unheard by Congress, the President, or the people . . . Outwardly we have a Constitutional Government. We have operating WITHIN our government and political system, ANOTHER body representing another form of government, a bureaucratic elite which believes our Constitution is outmoded and is sure that it is the winning side . . . All the strange developments in foreign policy agreements may be traced to this group who are going to make us over to suit their pleasure.

We must consider our danger not only in the terms of the treaties or agreements which have been completed, but in terms of those still in the pipelines, or already in effect, but still invisible to Congress or to the people . . . This political action group has its own pressure groups, its own vested interests, its foothold within our government, and its own propaganda apparatus . . . Someone, somewhere, conceived the brilliant strategy of revolution by the assembly line. The pattern for total revolution was divided into separate parts, each of them as innocent, safe, and familiar-looking as possible.

The men who made the blueprints know exactly WHAT the final product is to be. They have planned the final assembly years ahead. (Emphasis ours)"

Senator William Jenner - February 23, 1954

"It is interesting to observe the workings of the Establishment in politics. As I have pointed out, it rarely fails to get one of its members, or at least one of its allies, into the White House. In fact, it generally is able to see to it that both nominees are men acceptable to it."

Mr. Richard H. Rovere, "The American Establishment," Esquire, - May, 1962

"Every President since 1933 has been the captive of the governmental elite."

Senator William E. Jenner, February, 1956

PART I - DIRE PERIL - LONG TWILIGHT

The late President Kennedy, in his inaugural address and several times thereafter, warned the Nation of a "dire peril" which is now with us, and of the "long twilight" into which we are heading.

President Johnson, in a speech made before the American Bar Association in New York City shortly after he took office, informed the assembled lawyers that the Country had been through a revolution. We did not know about the revolution because it had been "peaceful and profound." Mr. Johnson said he knew all about it because he had taken a prominent part in it.

Nobody quite understood what these men were saying. Everybody knows somebody else writes their speeches. Nobody pays any attention to them. After all, the rich man's playboy son and the erstwhile school-teacher from Texas reading somebody else's speeches are not oracles, - and we never had it so good. Neither did the people of Cuba have it so good as in their days of "dire peril" and as they headed into the "long twilight." And their Revolution too was "peaceful and profound." It was only when the purges began and the "dire peril" had been left behind, that they recognized the "long twilight." It might be well to ponder one pertinent fact about Revolution. In the violent and bloody type, the people are warned and thousands escape. When the Revolution is "peaceful and profound," the people are like cattle in the feed pens being fattened up for the kill - neither ever had it so good.

And so we have the assurance of one President that the revolution is over. And we have the assurance of another President that we are now in a state of "dire peril" as we await the coming of the "long twilight."

Did these two rich and expendable men know what they were saying as they read the words of their speech-writers? They knew what had happened to the rulers of Poland, Hungary, and Cuba after the Revolution, as "dire peril" was succeeded by the "long twilight." If they did not quite understand the tenor of their remarks, - their speech-writers did. And the speech-writers always come from the same place - the headquarters of "The Establishment," in New York, otherwise identified as the Council on Foreign Relations, - the "King-Makers." Speech-writing plays a very important part in King-Making and the speech-writers are very well trained indeed.

These speech-writers are so well trained that they can write speeches to be delivered before the smartest men in the country, telling them plainly what the King-Makers have in store for them and theirs, and not one of the hearers understands what he is being told. Not one asks for an explanation.

The time to ask questions apparently is after the thin line of "long twilight" has been crossed and the answers are given with bullets, - the predictable end of the "peaceful and profound" Revolution. The first discernable effect of Revolution is of course, control of the government. But this is never the prime objective. This objective is always, a change in the form of government.

PART II - THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

The change in the form of government in the United States has steadily progressed through a very carefully paced "gradualism," directed every step of the way by "the Establishment," - the Council on Foreign Relations in New York City.

This formerly secret organization of the self-appointed Lords of Creation numbers not more than 1400 men, and yet they control the government, - (in fact, they are the government), the wealth, education and the communications of the nation. The top echelon of less than 100 men are the billionaire cartelists who, unless we are extremely lucky, - will rule the world and everybody in it, - after the purges, of course. These men have never produced anything, yet they, by outright ownership and as holders of our bonded debt, own it all.

The middle echelon in this power-house is a group of boot-licking and unscrupulous military men and educators, which includes - and has included - General Eisenhower and Brother Milton, General Stillwell, General George Marshall, General Lucius Clay, General Lyman Lemnitzer, General Bedell Smith, General Maxwell Taylor and a few others. These military men have all been shot to the top by mysterious forces and they have always done quite well for themselves financially.

At the lower echelon of The Establishment, the largest group consists, almost exclusively of "the intelligencia." They head the large Foundations and all the large Universities, - beneficiaries of enormous government contracts and Foundation grants, and they run the government. Their associates form the Cabinet, no matter who is President. Their men fill all the hundreds of policy-making positions in the sprawling bureaucracy in Washington and all over the world. This is the self appointed secret government known as The Establishment.

The basic theory of the "intelligencia" is that the American People are too dumb to rule themselves and spend their own earnings. They need trained social engineers to run the country and control them. The People generally, would not accept this principle, - and so for many years the Social Engineers employed by the World Empire Builders have been funnelled into government, - gradually taking control. The Establishment must PROVE to the People that they are unfit to rule themselves, or to elect men competent to represent them.

What better way to prove it, than by having the duly elected leaders of the Nation bring us to our knees through National bankruptcy?

And so - The Establishment provides the leaders, - men totally unqualified for any position of responsibility. The Establishment launches a propaganda campaign of enormous proportion, builds an image (or two) and then offers the finished product to the American People on election day.

The "duly elected" inexperienced and unqualified National "leader" then receives from Establishment headquarters a list of "Policy Makers" - department heads, which the "duly elected leader" sends to the Senate for confirmation, and the policies of The Establishment are put into effect. Policies calculated to PROVE to the Americans that they are not fit to rule themselves or to "select" men competent to do the job.

The destruction of the Constitutional Republic is now complete. The Establishment has selected for us, over the years, - Presidential candidates from their own tightly controlled Secret Organization. We had no choice. Among the hand-picked Presidential candidates of the Council on Foreign Relations were:

| | |
|----------------------|----------------------|
| Charles Evans Hughes | Henry A. Wallace |
| Herbert Hoover | Thomas E. Dewey |
| Wendell Wilkie | Dwight D. Eisenhower |
| Richard M. Nixon | John F. Kennedy |
| Adlai Stevenson | |

We could not win. The C. F. R. Establishment could not lose.

There is no available record that Franklin Roosevelt was a member. But his campaign was financed by prominent C. F. R. Master-Minds and the whole army of planners; advisors, psychologists, social workers, economists and propagandists, - known as "The Brain Trust," - came from the Membership rolls of The Council on Foreign Relations, - The Establishment. Nor is there any record that Harry Truman belonged. In fact some typically Truman remarks directed to the very head of the Establishment indicates that he did not then know who was Boss. But he soon learned.

PART III - F. D. R.

Roosevelt was The Great Humanitarian who would lead us out of the C. F. R. created "Depression" and into the life of great abundance, the "Affluent Society." He was a super-man with all the answers.

Actually Roosevelt had nothing to justify his employment in any responsible position. He was a rich woman's only son. He had no executive experience. He craved a political career, - had run for the State Legislature in New York and had been defeated. At that time he came to the attention of an astute politician, John E. Mack, prominently identified with Council on Foreign Relations. Mr. Mack persuaded Roosevelt to run for the State Senate. He won and thereafter was the protégé of Mr. Mack, who several times placed his name in nomination for President.

It is true, Mr. Roosevelt was elected governor of New York State. He was a very sick man at the time and spent little time on the job. He had a very capable Lieutenant Governor, Herbert Lehman, - one of the very top Members of the Council on Foreign Relations. He kept the wheels of government turning in Albany while the Propaganda Mills churned out the "image building," bally-hoo, of the great accomplishments of the absentee invalid Governor of New York, which was to become standard practice in "selling" the American People a hand-picked candidate of the C. F. R.

Eventually the "Great Humanitarian" was to take the United States into a Second World War after deliberately planning the destruction of our Pacific fleet, which brought death to more than three thousand young Americans.

Roosevelt, his Secretaries of State, War and Navy, the Chief of Staff and Chief of Naval Operations, - all fully informed of the impending Jap attack against our fleet, - sat like the Ghouls they were - waiting for the attack to come, - and to succeed. And they carefully planned and arranged that NO Warning be sent to the Commanders at Pearl Harbor. Thus the first of the succession of C. F. R. agents and utter incompetents, hand-picked for us, - polished up by the "image making" processes and offered us in order that by our own "election" we PROVE we are not fit to govern ourselves. As conclusion to Pearl Harbor the Congress of the United States, in 1961, actually decorated the Jap General who planned the attack against Pearl Harbor. Surely, if Congress is truly representative of the People, - the People are unfit to govern themselves.

PART IV - H. S. T.

Next we got Harry Truman, top lieutenant of the Criminal Pendergast Gang in Kansas City. Surely no responsible person would claim that he was ever qualified for the Presidency. When Truman received the Vice Presidential Nomination in 1944, it was plainly evident that Roosevelt's days were numbered. So the "King-Makers" provided us with a man who had no qualifications for association with decent men, much less for President of the United States. As a young man he had "failed" as a businessman, but as chief lieutenant of the Pendergast Gang, he was ideally suited to the program of convincing us that we are not fit to rule ourselves or to elect men competent to lead us.

Harry's "friends" had to pay off his debts at 10 cents on the dollar before he went to Washington in order that he be able to open a bank account, but with his wife constantly on the pay-roll and the rapidly accumulating benefits of official position, plus the profits of a book written for Harry -- as for his successor in office -- Harry left Washington a rich man. He had come a long way from Kansas City Reconstruction Finance Corporation, otherwise known as the Jackson County School Fund, which had served the Pendergast Mob so well.

Many informed people believed we had reached "the bottom of the barrel" with Harry Truman. But there was to be more -- much more. Many of these same people now believe that by comparison with the balance of The Great Leaders foisted upon us in the last thirty years, Truman was a gentleman and a scholar.

True he plunged us into another War -- this time on his own blurred and befuddled decision and without consulting the Congress. He then turned our armed forces over to the United Nations where they fought the Red Chinese, under Russian Command, while the Red Chinese were led by the United Nations CHAIRMAN OF THE MILITARY STAFF COMMITTEE ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE from his U. N. post. Both sides in the Korean War led by RUSSIAN COMMANDERS.

The policy of the United Nations, that there shall be NO VICTORY in a U. N. War was put into immediate effect, and thousands of young Americans were fed into the maw of the -- murderous U. N. War for the sole purpose of getting rid of them; of shocking the People of the United States and building up the idea that we are not fit to govern ourselves or select men competent to rule over us. Our Greatest General -- Douglas MacArthur, FIELD COMMANDER of our troops, never quite understood why he should be required to fight a war for the express purpose of losing it. And Truman fired MacArthur when he refused to accept defeat. The war in Korea in itself could have impressed upon us that we are not fit to govern ourselves or select our own leaders, - and a WIN would have blunted the desired effect.

The Great Humanitarians in The Establishment and their ultra Humanitarian followers, including Harry Truman, and D. D. Eisenhower, casually abandoned THOUSANDS of American prisoners of the U. N. War in Red Chinese prison camps. Many of them are there to this day, - and nobody in the "government" cares anything about them. After all - they were not AMERICAN Soldiers fighting an American War - They were U. N. soldiers fighting a U. N. "Peace Action." And "We" elected to represent us - and them - men who were incapable of securing their release.

PART V - D. D. E.

Before the Truman term of office had expired, The Establishment began building up their top Military operative then in Europe, as the next President of the United States. Part of the build-up involved a book, ghost written - by another Establishment Character, Joe Barnes, of the Alger Hiss school. General Eisenhower got a million dollars complete with tax-fix for his great contribution to contemporary literature and he decided he was a Republican, and not a Democrat as his record indicated, and he was prepared to offer himself as Republican Candidate for the Presidency.

Now Harry had cooperated selflessly with The Establishment, - especially in committing American armed forces to the Korean War and in "firing" General MacArthur, and he was still a poor man. This just did not seem right, so Harry instigated a one man sit-down strike. He had not served two full terms and therefore was eligible to offer himself for another term in opposition to the Great Military Hero.

The ghost-writers went to work and "Harry" electrified the world with "his" Man From Independence. The generous tax-fix for some reason had gone out of fashion, - but Harry was no longer a poor man. And he did not want another term in the White House anyway. He had made his contribution to the Great Idea. Truly the American people were unfit to select their Presidents. They now had their FIRST MILITARY DEFEAT, combined with abandoned prisoners of war and an unpayable debt to convince them. But the end was not yet.

The greatest propaganda build-up of all time ushered in the candidacy of Dwight D. Eisenhower, - in all the bally-hoo, not a single person stated a single GREAT thing he had ever done - nobody pointed out a single HEROIC action. And nobody asked the logical questions. Nobody wanted to be confused with the facts.

He was the most INCOMPETENT of all The Establishment candidates. His military record and the manner in which THE ESTABLISHMENT used this Military Mis-fit, raises the question, WHY None Dare Call it treason? Red-handed, blood soaked treason.

General Eisenhower had a long and drab career in the Armed Services after his graduation from West Point. He was never able to rise above the rank of Lt. Colonel. He became acquainted with the daughter of Franklin D. Roosevelt and she brought him to the attention of her father who happened to be in need of an inconspicuous watch-dog to trail the highly intelligent and resourceful General MacArthur. Eisenhower seemed to meet the requirement and he got the job. He did not last long, and when he returned to Washington AND NEW YORK, - a "promotion" was recommended, and in one of the strangest Military Manoeuvres in American History, the "key-hole" Colonel became a FOUR STAR GENERAL. He got FOUR STARS at one time, being "jumped" over the heads of hundreds of intelligent loyal and deserving men, who had earned their promotions. In two years time The Great Military Mis-fit had gone from Lt. Colonel to Colonel; Brigadier General; Major General; Lt. General; then to FOUR STAR GENERAL and on to Commander-in-Chief of ALL THE ALLIED ARMED FORCES IN EUROPE. In two short years.

Who was so anxious to advance this man and give him command of all European Allied Forces? Why? In answer to the first question - Ike became a bonafide member of The Establishment. They took care of him, and he took care of their interests. As to Why? - When the war was over all Eastern Europe was handed over to the badly battered Russians, - Germany was divided, with "Communism" and the Russians firmly in control of East Germany. And The Establishment, with McCloy and Battenweiser in full control of West Germany.

The United States forces under General Patton were closing in on Berlin when The Great Military Hero, - by his own admission, - shut off the gasoline for Patton's army and stopped his advance, - so the Soviet Armies could take Berlin. This was probably Ike's greatest Military accomplishment, but it was heroic only to the extent he risked getting his just reward then and there, from Patton or his troops.

During the war hundreds of thousands of enemy soldiers had surrendered themselves to the U. S. Army on promise of Sanctuary, as they elected to come over to us to escape the Germans. Our Commanders had been authorized to promise them all - and did promise them - that at the end of the war they would be liberated.

When the war ended, Ike went up to have a pow-wow with his good friend Joe Stalin. He received a diamond and ruby medal valued at more than a hundred thousand dollars. When he returned to "duty" he began pressing the Pentagon for permission to surrender these two million prisoners of war to Stalin. Suddenly the Pentagon needed a new Chief of Staff, - and Ike was it. Eleven days later he turned two million men and boys over to Stalin - to be murdered and enslaved. This was the famous Operation Keelhaul. The final pay-off for Ike's perfidy was the theft of the Republican Nomination for the Presidency, - and his election twice.

Many Military Men writing about World War Two are strangely silent about the Commander of all the Allied Armies. And all denounce the unrealistic conduct of the war. Ike of course, may have been handicapped by the services of a female chauffeur - Kay Summersby, who had somehow been "planted" on him, - but there can be no doubt the presence of the lady around the battle fields did something for the morale of the service men.

For eight long years Ike was "President." During his first term a series of serious illnesses provided excuse for almost continuous absenteeism. But "we" elected him when he once again ran against the same Democratic Candidate, Adlai Stevenson.

During the next four years Ike spent far more time golfing and fishing than he did running the "government." But SOMEBODY kept the wheels turning. Who?

During these eight years American "prestige" passed out cold - all over the world. Nasser swiped the Suez Canal and clogged it with sunken ships. When the British and French attempted to defend this property, Ike said - "Hold Everything." He backed down these former Noble Allies and "WE" paid all the bills to restore the canal. Then the Panamanians said, - "Well! if Nasser can get the Suez, then we ought to take over the Panama Canal." And the Great Military Hero in the White House said in effect, - Well, just go ahead and hoist your flag over the Canal Zone, - we will give you our railroad and a few other trifles like that, - then we will negotiate about the balance. When he first took office Ike "negotiated" a continuous state of war in Korea. He failed however, to negotiate the release of the American prisoners of war.

Before Ike got out of office he had cut off supplies to Batista in Cuba, (he was now becoming expert at cutting off supplies) even refusing to permit shipment of material Batista had bought and paid for. Ike and his Bosses wanted Batista out, and they got him out.

As soon as Castro moved into Havana "Our Government" recognized him and his regime. He made a triumphant visit to Washington and on to New York where he addressed The Establishment. For Cuba the period of "dire peril" was over. Castro returned to Havana and the PURGE began. The "long twilight" had descended.

Finally Ike retired to his Gettysburg farm to enjoy the rich emoluments which had accrued to him during his two terms in office. Never before had a President so openly accepted such lavish "gifts" from rich industrialists doing business with the government. The Gettysburg farm became a veritable honey-pot around which busy-bee tycoons buzzed incessantly.

Surely the "Eisenhower Years" might have convinced the voters that they were not fit to rule themselves or to select men fit to govern them. But the suggestion has not yet been made.

PART VI - J. F. K.

Next The Establishment offered us a choice between their two Member agents, Kennedy and Nixon. This time The Establishment for some reason, had seen fit to go outside the fold. They brought both candidates into the Organization during the election year. Something big was coming up. It still is.

The Bay of Pigs fiasco was the outstanding accomplishment of the Kennedy Administration. It wasn't much of course, - but it should have given the voters time in which to remember that Mr. Kennedy never, at any time had any qualification for the office of President. He had been a rich man's play-boy son, - pushed into politics by his father's ambition. He had "served" in Congress and Senate and had rolled up a remarkable record in both Houses, - for absenteeism.

He died tragically - and mysteriously. Then "we" got Lyndon Johnson. Before the "dire peril" of the Kennedy Administration evolves into the "long twilight" of a Johnson Administration we should all join with the "Texan (who) Looks at Lyndon."

PART VII - L. B. J.

A one-dollar paper-back which may be purchased from the Palo Duro Press, Box 399, Canyon, Texas, entitled, "A Texan Looks at Lyndon," sets forth charges, which if permitted to go unchallenged, brand the candidate for the office of President of the United States as a crook and a criminal, - or worse.

The author portrays a picture of a skillful, ruthless and domineering politician, who has for years conducted his highly profitable swindles through Young Man "fronts," the two most prominent being Billy Sol Estes and Bobby Baker. The all-time "favorite" however, is the now 40 year old Morris Jaffe, who, together with two of the strangest "creditors" a bankrupt ever had, - holds title to the bulk of Billy Sol Estes vast empire.

The Billy Sol Estes swindles, running into hundreds of millions of dollars, - mostly "government money," and bringing financial ruin to hundreds of hard working farmers and business-men - ranked among the most notorious of the century. But from the beginning to the end, a hidden hand, powerful and sinister, - has protected Billy Sol Estes.

The frauds against the GOVERNMENT were "Investigated" by the McClellan Committee in utmost secrecy and there WERE NO "LEAKS." On page 144 - A Texan Looks at Lyndon we find, - "Immediately following Kennedy's assassination, according to responsible Washington sources, a presidential order sealed the McClellan committee findings from scrutiny, even from the Congress itself."

The Congress, which for so many years performed under the Bull-Whip of the man become president, will have no brash ideas about prying into the affairs of "Lyndon's Boy," - Billy Sol Estes, much less those of Lyndon himself. For it is a matter of record that the President, then serving as Majority Leader of the Senate, - and later as Vice (!) President, wangled some very profitable favors for the Youthful Texan.

One of Billy's (?) most remunerative rackets was his cotton allotment swindle. This finally became so bad even the tolerant Federal Agents could no longer go along with it. And so Billy's Man in Pecos reported - not to Billy in Texas, but to L. B. J. in Washington. L. B. J. wrote Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman, enclosing the letter of Billy's (?) Man in Pecos, and in reply the Secretary pointed out "There have been some abuses of the law in this regard." These "had the effect of an outright sale of the pooled allotments from farms which have been displaced by agencies having the right of eminent domain."

Here was mild understatement of the fact that this was a swindle. And the Secretary promptly put a stop to the swindle by CHANGING THE LAW - which the "agencies" may do without recourse to Congress.

Prominently displayed on the wall of Billy "Sol's" luxurious home which he still occupies despite the "bankruptcy," is a large picture inscribed, "To Billy Sol Estes with warm regards and best wishes" from Lyndon Johnson.

In 1948 L. B. J. ran for the United States Senate. In the primary election he trailed Governor Coke Stevenson by more than 71,000 votes, which resulted in a "run-off" election between the two candidates.

Then Money began pouring into Texas and L. B. J. seemed to get it all. He began a wild and wooly campaign in the course of which, according to Martin Dies Story, "he hired a burlesque show to travel with him and gave a Government bond at each meeting to the holder of a lucky raffle number." Or as the campaign is reported in "A Texan Looks at Lyndon," - "he (Johnson) simply blazed on with his helicopter, his routine of Movie Stars, and his emphasis on hoopla and sex appeal." The subsequent Johnson-Baker combine apparently was a "natural" for L. B. J.

When the polls closed and the votes were counted, Stevenson was ahead by 113 votes out of nearly a million counted, - and Johnson promptly went on radio with a "VICTORY SPEECH." Then the wheeling and dealing began in the now famous Precinct 13, controlled by George Parr, long time pal of L. B. J. and 5 days after election day the vote count in the 13th was "Corrected" from Johnson 765, Stevenson 60 to Johnson 967, Stevenson 61. This gave Johnson a lead of 87 votes.

During the investigation of Precinct 13, it was discovered that there were 800 registrants in the Precinct and ONLY 600 ballots had been issued. First returns from the Precinct gave Johnson 765 and Stevenson 60. When Lyndon was still behind, - the vote was "corrected" - to give L.B.J. 967 and Stevenson 61. Governor Stevenson went to court, - Lyndon went on the air proclaiming "Victory." Then Justice (?) Hugo Black of the Supreme Court snatched the case away from the Texas Courts and declared L. B. J. WINNER. This Supreme Court Election "Victory" by 87 votes gave Lyndon the nick-name "Land-Slide Lyndon." Next time we hear of Lyndon's deep concern for "voting rights" it might be well to remember how he got to the Senate in the first place.

Lyndon's lawyer at this time was John D. Cofer. This is a name to remember. He will be turning up again in some strange circumstances. Before ending the story of Precinct 13 in Alice, Texas, - it might be well to note that Lee Harvey Oswald returned from Mexico shortly before the assassination of President Kennedy, he spent the night in Alice.

"A Texan Looks at Lyndon" records the strange story of an Austin Texas Murder. The victim, John Douglas Kinser, owned and operated The Pitch and Putt Golf Club, and was a "popular golf professional." He had been "going with" L. B. J.'s sister Josefa, who died suddenly at L. B. J.'s ranch following a Christmas party.

The murderer, Malcolm E. Wallace, a young Texas University Graduate, worked in the Agriculture Department in Washington, where Lyndon had such excellent connections, while he -- and Billy Sol Estes were piling up the millions.

On October 22, 1951, Malcolm Wallace drove up to the Pitch and Putt Golf Course, walked into the keepers house and shot Douglas Kinser to death. Wallace fled but was soon apprehended and indicted for murder with "malice aforethought." He was released under $30,000 bail, -- later reduced to $10,000. Lyndon's lawyer, the faithful John Cofer, took on his defense and he was found guilty of "Murder with malice aforethought," and given a five year suspended sentence. For Murder in the first degree?

In introducing Mr. Bobby Baker to his readers, the author of "A Texan Looks at Lyndon" states -- "With venality on the prowl, and corruption widely condoned if not an actual part of government policy, public apprehension feeds on imaginative fears, and the spectre of the gods of wrath and violence hand over such unfortunate and uneasy lands."

"Only in such a frame of emotion and events, of sustained judicial and executive usurpations -- combined with the abdication and default of Congress, can the real significance of the ENFORCED SHUTDOWN of the Bobby Baker investigation THROUGH THE PRESSURE OF THE PRESIDENT be correctly assayed and understood."

"While the peccadillos of this urbane but professional pimp, the admittedly effective operations to this connoisseur of plush living and lush flesh as the ready accessories of money, influence and power, -- even when wrapped in the Magic Mantle of being one of "the most trusted, most loyal and most competent" of Lyndon Johnson's friends, was not enough within itself to make a ripple on what was once the open and honest stream of American life and affairs."

In other days of course, once this sort of situation was uncovered, trial and punishment would have followed speedily. It may even have happened in this case, had not an assassination intervened. It is rumored in Washington that the Kennedys, who never did want truck with Johnson, were preparing to expose him and make it impossible for the Democrats to nominate him in 1964. And to this end Bobby K. permitted the Bobby B. story to leak out.

PART VIII - THE L. B. J. - BOBBY BAKER COMBINE

The Johnson-Baker operations made headlines nationally, for a short period. The matter was hastily referred to the Senate Rules Committee for investigation. President Kennedy went to Texas and L. B. J. returned to the White House.

Then everything changed. Witnesses took The Fifth, the Committee refused to hear vital evidence, - the white-wash was on with Texas-flavored vengeance.

The "free press" freely suppressed the facts, but dozens of pages of the Congressional Record, - especially the issue of July 27, 1964, reveals the sordid story of Lyndon's Boy Bobby and his swindles. It is there for any honest department head to see and to read: - The Internal Revenue Service, the Securities Exchange Commission, - The Justice Department. They all have good cases against Bobby and anybody with whom he may have split his "take." But like the Three Monkeys, they hear nothing, see nothing, know nothing.

Bobby Baker was an employee of the United States Senate. He was selected for his $19,600 a year job by L. B. J., who was Senate Majority Leader, and as Leader has exercised a STRANGE POWER over the whole Congress. Not since the time of Thad Stevens has Washington seen anything like it. Unquestionably, Bobby Baker was a great help. As L. B. J. has stated publically, - "Bobby Baker is my good right arm, he is the last man I see at night and the first I see when I get up in the morning." And all day long Bobby was running his "business" from the Senate office. Catering to the erotic desires of visiting dignitaries and others; moving around the "call girls," who had alternated between "his" out of town "Carousel" at Ocean City and the enormous and ornate "apartment" presided over by his 5th Amendment Secretary, in Washington, D. C. Then there were the frequent telephone arrangements with the abortionist in Puerto Rico, charged up to the taxpayers on Bobby's Senate phone bill. When Bobby was called before the Senate Rules Committee, he refused to discuss any of this - he also took "The Fifth."

Bobby's "Carousel" has an interesting history. He had a partner in the beginning but the partner died. His widow did not seem to know much about the operation except that she collected many thousands of dollars for expenses - in cash - from Bobby, who kept this and other large sums in his Senate office file.

But when the Carousel opened for business, L. B. J. headed a party of several hundred Congressmen and Senators and others who were transported free of charge to the Grand Opening. The food was provided from the cut-rate Senate Restaurant and the booze was provided by a registered lobbyist with important legislation pending at the time. To quote the Congressional Record, July 27, 1984, page 18481 - "That shows the pattern of shake-down by an employee of the U. S. Government." On Page 16, 462, the Congressional Record shows that in March of 1982, The Carousel was severely damaged by a coastal storm. Bobby applied for a $54,000 loan from the Small Business Administration - it being not generally known of course, that the S. B. A. is in the business of making loans to sustain the type of "business" Bobby was conducting. The S. B. A. authorized the loan subject to the following conditions, - quote - "Prior to any disbursement on account of loan, regional director shall be in receipt of evidence satisfactory to him that the borrowers have invested a total of $160,000 in cash in the projection in addition to the value of the land." Bobby's corporation could show an investment of $80,000, - but the S. B. A. wanted to see another $100,000. So Bobby trotted over to the American National Bank and he arranged to "borrow" $100,000 for fifteen days-until the S. B. A. could get a look at it- to keep the money in a special fund which COULD NOT BE DRAWN UPON. Just how the S. B. A. arranged to view this as "evidence" that "the borrowers have invested a total of $160,000 IN CASH in the projection" may be difficult for a normal borrower to understand, but that is the way Bobby got his government loan. He set up a FAKE bank account and obtained the tax-payers money to repair his New Jersey joy joint by fraud and misrepresentation.

In another one of his "deals," he borrowed money from Jimmy Hoffa's Teamsters Union. Bobby Kennedy's Justice Department has been hot on the trail of Hoffa - for years - but not nearly so hot on the trail of Bobby Baker. Remembering the rumor that it was Bobby K. who blew the whistle on Bobby B. in the beginning, - WHY HAS HE SUDDENLY TURNED COLD? He certainly does not love L. B. J. more now than he did then, - so why the switch? Bobby K. has had some strange experiences in the past year, not least of which was a trek to the isolated Hobe Sound, Florida estate of Mr. Douglas Dillon and Walt Rostow almost immediately after the funeral of his brother. It was quite evident that this two-week "visit" gave Bobby a New outlook on things in general. He will probably forget all about the Johnson-Baker Combine. He is not interested in how Baker "borrowed" the money from the tax-payers through the Small Business Administration.

The endless "business projects" of Lyndon's Bobby should be revealed. There are some Senators from both parties who would like to see it done. But the Whip with which Land-slide Lyndon has driven Congress for so many years is all too painfully remembered.

PART IX - LADY BIRD'S TV STATIONS

At a time when the integrity of the Federal Communications Commission, appointed by the President, is being questioned, due to the arbitrary rulings taking one critic of official Washington off the air and apparently leading up to the removal of another, - if they can get away with it, - this might be an appropriate time to look into Lady Bird's television business.

The Johnson propaganda regarding his (and her) vast accumulation of wealth during his years in Washington is that he personally did not acquire this wealth. Lady Bird did. She had invested "her inheritance" in a financially distressed station in Austin, Texas, where by hard work, much personal sacrifice and business acumen she built the station up into a multi-million dollar business. A veritable feminine Horatio Alger of the New Frontier, Lady Bird. The author of "A Texan Looks at Lyndon" says this just isn't so, - that he knows from first hand experience it isn't so. That it is a whoppin' big lie and he can prove it. He charges there is much doubt that Lady Bird ever got "her inheritance." When her Mother died she left an estate of approximately $100,000. Under Texas law Lady Bird's father inherited half of that and the other half was to be equally divided between Lady Bird and her two brothers. Her father was in charge of the estate. He married twice after the death of Lady Bird's Mother, - and in due course he paid the boys their share of the estate. Lady Bird married the penniless L. B. J. and in 1936 received from her father a series of NOTES in the amount of $21,000 as her share of her Mother's estate. The next year Lyndon ran for Congress after borrowing $10,000 from an unidentified source. Whether Lady Bird's NOTES were pledged as security, the record speaketh not.

When World War Two broke out, Congressman Johnson and his wife hastily "quit claimed" - surrendered claim to ownership - of a tract of land held by her father, - and nine days later the Government "paid $70,000 for the land, for a war installation." Lady Bird's father was to live for 13 years after this transaction and died leaving his property and trust fund for his wife, and the Lady Bird only a "brick building" in Mauldin, Mo., in fee simple.

At this point one might question whether Lyndon became a multi-millionaire on the basis of his wife's "inheritance."

In the book, "A Texan Looks at Lyndon," - the author describes in great detail, the operations through which the Johnsons not only obtained complete domination over the TV Circuit serving the large Austin, (Texas) area, - but have effectively kept out all competition. By whatever means this one-station monopoly was sustained, - and one would be childishly naive to hold that Lyndon's high political office in Washington was not the means, - the people of the Austin area were deprived of TV facilities available to the balance of the country. They had become something less than first class citizens.

Then there was the incident of the Waco citizens who had plans to open a Waco TV Station. They sought the aid of "their" United States Senator, L. B. J. He went through the proper-and-visible motions of sending a letter to the all-powerful and acutely politically conscious F. C. C. Nothing happened so far as the record indicates, - for a full year. Then the Waco station was licensed - with Johnsons holding 29% of the stock. The transaction reeks of bribery or pay-off. Again only the most naive partisan would concede that Johnson's official position as U. S. Senator from Texas, - Majority leader of the Senate, - was no factor in granting of this license.

It all boils down to this: In a relatively short period, the L. B. J. TV stations had earned a net worth of an estimate of SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS. And Bobby Baker had accumulated TWO MILLION DOLLARS. With the graduated income tax what it is - just how much did these people actually "earn" in order to have such fantastic "take-home-pay"?

PART X - THE CASE FOR THE SOCIAL ENGINEERS

Are the Social Engineers of The Establishment really making a case against the People, - the voters, - proving that they are not fit to rule themselves or to elect men qualified for the job? On the face of it, - the answer appears to be, that they have made their case; the caliber of the men who have occupied the White House during the past 30 years, is proof beyond question that not one of them was qualified, - in any respect, - to lead the American People, or honestly and competently conduct their government.

But the question arises as to WHY the People "elected" such men. And the answer is, - that actually they did not SELECT the candidates for the Presidency. The Establishment, - in full control of public communications, lied to the People, - they deliberately concealed the incontrovertible facts of the venality and the actual criminality of these men; they built FALSE IMAGES, - polished up tarnished reputations, and foisted upon an unsuspecting People a succession of men who have made of our National Capital, a veritable ROBBERS' ROOST.

The number of Establishment Presidential Candidates offered us on The Democratic ticket during the past 36 years (1928 to 1964), is much less than those offered as Republican Candidates. This is due to the 20 year terms of Roosevelt and Truman.

The Establishment was making phenomenal progress toward their dream of World Empire with these two men who took the Nation into two very profitable, but entirely unnecessary and unprovoked wars.

These wars, fought under the administration of the "Working Man's Party" took a terrible toll in life and limb of the "Working Man's" sons.

And these same wars contributed untold billions of dollars in profits to the members of The Establishment which engineered these wars, and whose members certainly belonged to the Republican Party. These wars were fomented by "leaders" of one Party and carried out by "leaders" of the other party. If the plan misfires an outraged public will be seeking the culprits in the wrong place - the wrong party. War provided protective cover for the real war criminals of this century; for World War One was set up in the exact same pattern.

Now the war and debt and interest policies which contributed so handsomely to the advancement of the World Empire dream of The Establishment propagated in "Republican" New York and put into effect by the "Democratic" Washington, are of utmost importance to The Establishment. They proceed with maximum efficiency under "Democratic" drive. The continued success then of Establishment World Empire policies demands that the Republican Party be kept out of office; weakened, - and if necessary - destroyed.

There have always been good men, plenty of them, in both major parties. In the past half century they have been suppressed - held down, - and in many instances, - eliminated. This is particularly true in the Republican Party, where The Establishment control was complete. But The Establishment had no iron clad guarantee they could permanently maintain control unless they broke the back-bone of the Party, rendering it so weak and so disreputable that it could not muster enough strength to interfere with the plans of The Establishment. And so they launched upon the Republican Party a succession of "Republican" Presidential Candidates guaranteed to weaken and eventually destroy That Party. All except Alf Landon were Establishment members. Not one was loyal or competent Republican candidate material.

First there was Herbert Hoover. He had abandoned the country of his birth at an early age and became a British subject, - and an agent for the British Establishment. After more than 20 years abroad, Hoover returned to the U. S. at the "request" of the managing director of the New York Establishment, Edward M. House, and became Food Administrator in the Democratic Wilson Administration. The Democratic government provided him with a "Secretary," the Republican Lewis L. Strauss, one of the richest of the Top Level Establishment operators, who accompanied Mr. Hoover on his travels. The question here is, - Who was "Secretary" to whom?

Then Mr. Hoover contributed $173,542 to the Republican Harding campaign slush fund, - and he became Secretary of Commerce in the Harding Cabinet and on to the Presidency - as a "Republican."

The Great Depression planned and executed in time honored fashion by the Establishment was, - as planned - a major blow to the Republican Party, - one from which it may be said, it has never fully recovered. The party was the victim, - not the President.

Next The Establishment gave the Republicans Alf Landon. He was a quiet, unknown, and ineffectual candidate, who never had a chance to win. He was the protégé of William A. White, an Establishment operator. Landon carried only two states, - Maine, and Vermont, - and Republican prestige sank to an all-time low.

Next The Establishment gave the Republicans their member-agent, Wendell Wilkie, ardent World Government advocate, who was a Democrat both before and after he was the "Republican" Candidate for President.

Next time out they provided the Republicans with Thomas E. Dewey.

This poverty-stricken victim of the Great Depression was brought to New York State and set up as a Rackets Buster by the Democratic Herbert H. Lehman, one of the top dogs in The Establishment. He became Republican Governor of New York State and was twice the Presidential candidate of the "Party." He succeeded in "snatching defeat from the jaws of victory," and is now a member of the Board of Directors of Kuhn-Loeb and Company.

The Establishment's next contribution to the Republican Party was the Roosevelt puppet, Dwight D. Eisenhower, who is said never to have voted Republican until he voted for himself.

The final contribution of The Establishment to the destruction of the Republican Party was their newly-admitted member agent, Richard M. Nixon, who called off The "Chicago Count" which many people believe would have elected him, - after a visit paid him by his Establishment opponent, J. F. K., who conferred with him privately in Key Biscayne, Fla., the Sunday following the "election." Incidentally, he, Nixon, has done quite well financially since that "visit."

The Republican Party certainly needed a powerful dedication to have survived the Party Destroyers palmed off on them all these years.

None of this would have been possible, had the Republicans known the identity of those who were "offering" them these Party-destroying and unworthy candidates. The Establishment had not yet been uncovered. But following the 1960 "election" the secret began to leak out, - and by 1964, The Establishment had been smoked out, - and the real Republicans, - fully informed - went into action in the best tradition of the Grand Old Party.

"Truth crushed to earth shall rise again" - and with it, perhaps the Republican Party.

PART XI - THE NEW DAWN

A great light has finally dawned on a substantial element of the American public. A counter-revolution of deep and devastating proportions was launched by the DELEGATES at the Republican National Convention in San Francisco in July of 1964. There - out of a clear sky, came the bolt of political lightning which ruthlessly exposed - and struck down, The Establishment.

TV viewers throughout the world witnessed the smash of the power of the King-Makers, the rescue of the Republican Party from their Satanic grip.

The top "front-men," - the trusted agents and lackeys of The Establishment sat petrified: with silly "Who Me?" expressions on their faces: Dwight Eisenhower, Richard Nixon, Henry Cabot Lodge, Nelson Rockefeller, and a dozen other old-line Establishment wheel-horses, hoping to save face by pretending they did not know what The Establishment was (and is) or who the King-Makers were (and may still be). The PEOPLE in the Republican Convention triumphed over the New York Power Elite, which has turned Washington into a ROBBERS' ROOST. They had driven the Money Changers out of the Republican Temple.

The great question of our time is, - can they keep them out? Can these relatively young and inexperienced political crusaders hold back the Wolves of Wall Street and Park Avenue? Can they hold onto the great victory they have won?

The answers to these awesome questions revolve around one man - the candidate. Will he remain loyal to the truly great Americans who nominated him, — will he reject those whom they have rejected and defeated? If he does not, — Washington will continue to be a ROBBERS' ROOST.

The whole country should, at this time, be ready and anxious to put aside all considerations and interests, except the interest of the United States of America. They should face up to the appalling facts of the nearly complete destruction of our Constitutional Government. We know — or we can all soon learn, the identity of the King-Makers, who have taken over the Government of the United States through what L. B. J. describes as "a peaceful and profound revolution." This "peaceful and profound revolution" was a revolution against the American People. It was not only "peaceful and profound," — it was also SECRET, illegal, treasonous, and it established, — as all revolutions do, — A NEW FORM OF GOVERNMENT, — a government of the self-appointed internationalist elite. This is the Government imposed upon a slumbering America by The Establishment. And this is the reason the counter-revolution AGAINST THE ESTABLISHMENT, launched at the Republican Convention MUST SUCCEED. No man — no candidate can be permitted to interfere. This is the time when the words of Thomas Jefferson must register with full force in the mind, in the heart, and in the conscience of every loyal American: This must be the watch-word of the counter revolution:

"It would be a dangerous delusion, if our confidence in the men of our choice should silence our fears for the safety of our rights. Confidence is, everywhere, the Parent of Despotism. Free Government is founded on jealousy, not confidence, which prescribes limited Constitutions to bind down those whom we are obligated to trust with power. Our Constitution has accordingly fixed the limits to which, — and no further, — our confidence will go.

"In . . . questions of power then, let no more be heard of confidence in . . . man, but BIND HIM DOWN FROM MISCHIEF BY THE CHAINS OF THE CONSTITUTION."

Thomas Jefferson.

There is your answer to those who plead for blind faith, — for Party Loyalty, — for the man of "our choice," or ANY OTHER MAN upon whom the power of government may be bestowed.

Do not trust Mortal Man. Not any Man. Support the candidate, yes. So long as there is an ABUNDANCE of evidence he is worthy of support. But better by far, — support those citizens striving desperately to regain our Constitutional Republic. Support them and strengthen their movement to the point where no man can deny them the fruits of their great victory.

The record of "Government" in the United States during the past 30 years under the control of the power-mad bureaucracy of The Establishment as they proceeded to prove that we are incapable of self-government - should strike terror to the soul of any sensible person. It is incredible, - it is outrageous, - it is INSANE. It could not have happened if the people had known the facts. And it cannot continue once they do have the facts.

We should have learned by this experience, that "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and this is no time to relax that vigilance. Not with the Wolves of Wall Street and Park Avenue still skulking in the shadows. The whole People, - informed, - must be on the alert, every minute, to keep these murderous beasts at bay. It is up to us to demand that no more of their treacherous breed be installed IN ANY POSITION in the American Government.

We must understand that the security, the very life of the Nation and the liberty of the People depend upon TWO APPOINTMENTS, - the positions of Secretary of State and Secretary of Defense. THESE are the appointments which THE ESTABLISHMENT MUST CONTROL if they are to continue their drive toward World Empire. These are the appointments the People MUST CONTROL if they hope to restore the Republic.

THERE MUST BE NO COMPROMISE HERE. The very life of the Nation is at stake. These two positions MUST be filled by men of unquestionable and undeviating loyalty to the United States and our Constitutional Republic. They must be men who have fought against the "peaceful and profound" revolution; men far removed from the poisoned air of Washington. It is well to remember too, - that all four nominees come from the Congress where they have an army of close and pleasant associations. And remembering this, we can profit from Jefferson's wise warning. Only one of the four, - Hubert Humphrey, can be identified as a member of The Establishment, but all have been under its baleful influence for years. They know all about it, - and it is quite likely they all fear it.

But even as the patriotic and courageous crusaders at the Republican convention stood up before the world - and challenged and defeated The Establishment, - so must the People of America UNITE - support the counter-revolution and ensure that "government of the People, by the People and for the People shall not perish from the earth."

In the City of San Francisco, in the year 1964, the Republicans met to nominate a candidate for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency. The Republicans had been holding nominating conventions for a long time, — but the watching world had never seen anything like this. Youth was on the march as it had been in the 1960 Democratic Convention. But there was a difference. The Democratic leadership, — that is the Visible leadership moved back and allowed the newcomers to go forward.

The Republican leadership elected to fight, — and they went down to a crashing defeat. The incredible spectacle, viewed throughout the world, — raises a thousand questions. The Visible leaders of the Republican Party, — former Presidents, presidential candidates and aspirants, whose wealth and influence had "kept the Party together," during the long, lean years of defeat and disaster, — even as many of the same group had "held together" the Democratic Party in their long, lean years, — were voted out of their long established leadership contemptuously. Keeping parties together in long, lean years begets a powerful control of these parties and when the control finally extends to both parties and the controllers are the same group of wealthy and influential men, grasping eternally for more wealth and more power, — the nation which harbors them is in serious trouble.

This is the very real trouble which has fallen upon the United States. The public communications, — the press, radio and TV of the Nation have known about this for many years and have always covered up for the rich and powerful men controlling also, literally Billions of dollars a year in advertising and other nice things which can come to cooperative moulders of public opinion.

But the time finally arrived, when Republicans began to figure things out for themselves, and having done so, — prepared a frontal assault on the bastions of the King Makers, — The Establishment, The Council on Foreign Relations, — the Invisible Government which, from Park Avenue and Wall Street, had dominated the Party as they "held it together," by Holding it down and in doing so, they advanced their own hellish objectives through the other captive Democratic Party.

The time will come, inevitably, when the grass-roots Democrats will learn the score, — and they too will revolt. But unfortunately, as Democrats become informed too many join up with informed Republicans, leaving their former political associates to the tender mercies of the Eastern Establishment, — The King Makers, — now seeking temporary refuge with the uninformed Democrats.

However, — the new Republicans, having denounced and defeated their former "leaders," — before the eyes of the TV viewing world, — still have problems. One of them is that people generally do not understand why they should have been so uncompromising in their attitude toward the great "leaders" of the Party, who had sustained them through the many lean years. People generally, — have been conditioned to think that once a contestant wins he should hug and kiss his opponent and set him up in business again.

The Republicans did not follow through and so their "image" suffers. And the "image" is far too important to be neglected in this fashion. And to the material mind of our "affluent society," — the spectacle of these brash, — and mostly young, Republicans ousting the money-bags is sheer idiocy. What do they think they are going to use for money? Votes, — and hard work, — and, er — intestinal fortitude? They must think this is 1896.

And so it goes. But the Republicans have learned something their critics do not know — do not suspect. They have learned the identity of the Real rulers in their Party and the purposes for which they had maintained that rule. The Party had been victimized by the Eastern Establishment of King Makers for fifty years. The New Republicans were determined to overthrow this spurious "leadership" and restore their party to Real Republicans, and to the People who would follow new leadership.

They realized that the Nation had been brought to a period of real crisis by these power-mad, No Party "leaders" of Both Parties. They understood the men who would spout "peace" — and "you never had it so good" from one side of the mouth, — then piously proclaim that unless we agree with them, — we will be blown to kingdom come — "the human race will disappear." And, — those who refuse to swallow this bunk are fear-mongers.

For a full fifty years the American People have been indoctrinated with destructive propaganda. They have been living in a dream world. When they finally run out of "money," — the unsecured I.O.U.'s of the King Makers, — and credit, — when the unpayable debts confront us, the dream will become a nightmare.

And so we hear the Prophets of Doom and Delirium telling us one day that we are the richest people on earth, — we never had it so good, — we can't possibly spend all our earnings for our own use, — we have to give it away, — then borrow some more and give that away too.

And next day the very same prophets tell us Russia and China and Cuba are ready to blow us to glory and we will starve to death in our old age unless we get up some more social security tax. The People have been trained by the public communications media with their expert propagandists, to hear and remember the pleasant things and push aside the warnings. The last President, several times uttered some ominous predictions. Nobody paid any attention. Nobody knows to this day what he was talking about. He did not explain. He and all his speech-writers, advisers, etc., with the exception of the "Irish Mafia" were trained and trusted members of The Establishment. The Establishment of the King Makers for Both Parties. The New Republicans who challenged and defeated The Establishment at San Francisco were akin to the David who took on Goliath. They, unfortunately, did not finish off their adversary, — and he has too much at stake to take his defeat lying down.

This wounded and enraged Beast of the Wall Street jungle will be back. He will not be alone, and the New Republicans had better be on guard day and night; they had better round up and alert all their forces and prepare to defend their gains.

The lines are drawn between the usurpers of the government, and the people who have produced everything of value in the Nation. The powers of The Establishment will contend with the untried powers of a somnolent, an uninformed and consequently apathetic people. The Establishment is on the defensive for the first time. The future of every American citizen has been laid on the line as the Republican David tees off on The Establishment Goliath.

May ancient history repeat. Only the uninformed can fail to marvel at the raw courage of The New Republicans, and to sense a revival of the great American tradition which called forth Patrick Henry, Paul Revere, Nathan Hale, Anthony Wayne, Stonewall Jackson.

Something great happened in San Francisco in July, 1964. What now lies ahead? Can we follow through?

APPENDIX

For too many years the American public has gone to the polls every four years to choose between two candidates for President who ostensibly represented the same political philosophy. One candidate would proclaim in effect, - "I can give you everything plus love Baby" and the other intoned, - "I can do it too, but better."

And whichever candidate was elected, we had the same old and too familiar faces in Washington. The same policies, - for nearly thirty years, that have failed to produce real and lasting satisfaction for the voters.

At long last, a significant number of people in the United States became aware of the reason for the Gold-dust Twins policies of the major parties. They learned that both parties are controlled, lock, stock and barrel, by the SAME PEOPLE. And by controlling BOTH PARTIES these people actually control the government, - they have become the government.

The controllers have been identified as The Establishment, - the King Makers. Their true and incorporated title is The Council on Foreign Relations. This small group of not more than 1400 men, with headquarters in Pratt House, New York City, has taken over the major parties by the simple and quite legal process of getting control of the delegates sent from the grass-roots to BOTH Party Conventions.

While the simple process of getting control of the delegates is not in itself illegal, the process of BRIBING delegates might well be. The important fact is that by whatever means, - The Establishment, whose TOP MEMBERS are the richest men in America, have controlled the nominating conventions of BOTH parties for many years, - and having nominated THEIR CANDIDATES, and elected one of them, - they then control the government.

Not until 1952 did their activities become quite clear. Up to that time they had operated more or less through FRONTS. But from 1952 until 1964 they offered THEIR OWN MEMBERS on BOTH tickets: Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson, - twice. Then John F. Kennedy and Richard M. Nixon.

Once THEIR MAN is elected the New York headquarters of the C.F.R. operates as a HIRING HALL for the thousands of people who will become THE ADMINISTRATION: the Cabinet members, - the top executives in all the myriad bureaus and departments, - all the planners, consultants and POLICY MAKERS who will run the government in Washington. ALL have been provided BY the C.F.R. and from their own ranks.

This venomous operation has been known to the author of this little book for some seven years and as a result of forty years study and searching for the cause and the nature of "communism." The existence of the Council on Foreign Relations had been the best kept secret of the century until as a result of being in the right place and at the right time, - and having a concrete idea of what to look for, - Mary M. Davison was privileged to recognize instantly the true identity of the "enemy within" when confronted with it.

Not that the Council on Foreign Relations is "communist" as people have been misled into believing in "communism." It has now been fairly well established that "communism" is but a FRONT behind which the Council on Foreign Relations, - The Establishment, - has been able to operate and become KING-MAKERS as they advance THEIR PLAN to take over the world.

Having learned the facts, and thoroughly researched them, the author was unable to find a means of transmitting the information to the American People. Several professional writers undertook to do this and for some reason failed to get their point across. Then prior to the 1960 elections, the author conceived the idea of informing the United States Senate, which would have to APPROVE OR REJECT the appointees of the new Administration, of the nature and the identity of The Establishment, believing that once informed, the Senate WOULD NEVER APPROVE any more agents of The Establishment cabal.

But the Senate, fully informed, proceeded to approve, without exception, the agents of the King-Makers and to consent to more and more of the anti-American activities of the usurpers. Information and advice began to pour into this little domicile, - and as the true picture of official Washington took shape it became evident that our government WAS GONE, - that The Establishment had, - as they now proudly proclaim, taken over by a bloodless, - a "peaceful and profound revolution," and were taking our People into THEIR World Soviet as fast as conditions would permit.

It was then that our little band began to seek ANOTHER WAY OUT, - and in the process we began a real and a serious study of our Constitution. And there we found the KEY to solution to all our innumerable problems. It had all been taken care of by our Founding Fathers, guided as they were by Divine wisdom. A short review of our Constitutional history spells it out:

1. In the beginning the People agreed among themselves that THEY would be sovereign — not any king, — but each individual would himself be king in his own right.
2. The individuals residing in States carved from Royal grants of territory, adopted these States as their own. Then they voluntarily transferred to their States the sovereignty which they had reserved to themselves in order that the State officials freely chosen by the People could act as TRUSTEES of the sovereign rights of the People.
3. In due time, as the country grew and inter-state and international complications developed, the States, with the consent of the People, decided to create a FEDERAL AGENCY to conduct, in the name of the States and the People, certain clearly specified activities, — AND NONE OTHER.
4. This AGENCY was created and bound by contract, — the Constitution of the United States; a contract firmly binding upon both parties, and placing the STATE GOVERNMENTS as Parties of the First Part in full control and authority over the Agency they had created.
5. In establishing this agency the States created a CONGRESS which was to provide a forum for the wishes of the People in the States. In this forum the Congressmen write laws in accordance with the needs of their States. But the States, realizing that the final and awesome responsibility for protecting the interests of the People and the Nation they were now creating, — rested upon them, — dictated that the STATES should select and APPOINT two representatives each, as AMBASSADORS from the States, — TO SUPERVISE THE WHOLE GOVERNMENT. This body was given special and extraordinary powers and was named the SENATE.

THE SENATE then, became the BALANCE WHEEL of the Republic. It had the power to REVIEW Acts of Congress: to CONFIRM OR REJECT Appointments to high office; to pass upon TREATIES and the power to TRY IMPEACHMENT. These special powers were to be exercised by THE APPOINTED SENATE ALONE, — and NOT by any "Upper House of Congress."

The Constitutional Convention nailed down the fact of the special position to be accorded the SENATE, — as the representatives of the separate STATE GOVERNMENTS when they decreed in Article 1, Section 4, that the Legislatures and the Congress might change the time, method and places of electing Congressmen and Senators, "EXCEPT AS TO THE PLACE OF ELECTING SENATORS." That PLACE was to be the State Capitols.

The provisions of the Constitution relating to the manner of selecting the SENATE, and the special powers of that SENATE to SUPERVISE THE WHOLE FEDERAL STRUCTURE for which the STATES were responsible to the People, made of that all-powerful SENATE an effective stumbling block to any encroachment of evil and subversive elements outside Constitutional limits.

And it was to be expected, that such persons, who have existed in every country from the dawn of history, would scheme endlessly to find a way to get rid of that all-powerful Senate. And eventually they accomplished their purpose when they, in 1913, persuaded the States to adopt the 17th Amendment abolishing the Constitutional Senate. The STATES in this action, ACTUALLY VOTED AWAY THEIR OWN AUTHORITY over the government; a power they held as the TRUSTEES of the sovereignty of the People in their States.

They voted to create, - and DID CREATE, - AN UPPER HOUSE of Congress, but failed to DO ANYTHING ABOUT the special and SUPERVISORY POWERS specifically conferred upon A STATE APPOINTED SENATE. The consequences of this tragic and irresponsible action of the State Legislatures soon became apparent. From the date of this illegal and un-Constitutional transfer of power, the STATES, who heretofore had selected and recommended ALL APPOINTMENTS for policy making positions in government, having voted themselves out of supervisory power, have found themselves steadily, although gradually, - deprived of all authority in the Federal Agency they had created in the name of the People.

They had destroyed the Republic. And apparently they never did realize what had happened. Wars and debts and taxes and excitement of many varieties kept them, - and the people, occupied for many years, during which the revolutionaries who had engineered this quiet, - and "peaceful and profound" revolution, consolidated their gains and became firmly established in Washington. The take-over has now become complete. Since 1952 the whole Federal Structure has been completely dominated by trained agents of the Council on Foreign Relations, - The Establishment, - The King-Makers.

The author and friends who had conducted the long correspondence with the 17th Amendment "Senators" and having become convinced that this "Senate was far beyond the reach of the People OR THE STATES, having informed themselves of the situation, decided that members of the State Legislatures who obviously KNOW NOTHING of what had happened and what had been going on in Washington, decided that ALL THE STATE REPRESENTATIVES IN THE NATION should be informed.

The State Representatives including Governors and Senators, are those to whom we had transferred our sovereignty and it was up to them to act for us. Having delegated our authority, we were going over their heads when we attempted to influence THEIR hirelings in Washington. Regardless of the 17th Amendment, the States are still in possession of the ONLY authority to speak and act for us; we have never revoked that authority, freely delegated even before the Constitution was written. We therefore had collaborated in the destruction of the powers of our own States by permitting the thousands of violations of the Constitutional Contract by the Washington Agency and failing to make demand upon our State officials to USE OUR POWERS to stop it.

All this of course can be blamed upon the very faulty educational system which for so many years, has failed to teach the history of our Republic. The People did not know. And their State officials, products of the educational system, did not know either. And we felt that the State Officials, nation-wide, once informed, would take the same interest in reversing the international escapades of "official" Washington, that we take.

With this background we can only say that the author together with a group of dedicated friends, then set up The Council for Statehood for the purpose of informing ALL MEMBERS OF STATE GOVERNMENT nation-wide of all the facts known to the group, and to try to suggest means by which the government of the United States might be restored to the People under the direct supervision and control of the State Legislatures.

We hold that NOTHING CAN EVER BE DONE to accomplish this purpose until the 17th Amendment has been repealed. Having lived with this problem for years, day and night, - we are convinced that this is the one step which will do more to return the government to the People than any other. It is obvious to us who have had the experience that the SENATE acting as an UPPER HOUSE of Congress, IS NOT IN CONTROL of Congress as the SENATE REPRESENTING THE STATES must of necessity be. This "Senate" dependent as it is upon out-of-state money for campaign purposes, - and provided largely from contributions of The Establishment made through the SENATORIAL CAMPAIGN FUND COMMITTEE, cannot and DOES NOT represent the STATES.

And it is equally obvious that in the absence of a STATE AUTHORITY in government, - our States are, in-so-far as government influence is concerned, — just hollow and empty shells.

The 17th Amendment Senate has been tried and found wanting. It has proven to be a faithless servant of the People. By its very nature it can be nothing else. And this fact was all too well understood by those evil men who advocated the 17th Amendment. It WAS NEVER UNDERSTOOD by the State officials prior to 1913, who voted its adoption.

This evil CAN BE CORRECTED. We believe that INFORMED STATE OFFICIALS will move to correct it once they become convinced that it should be done.

And we can leave to your imagination to picture the pandemonium which would reign in Washington as the States, — dozens of them, — began to introduce the necessary resolutions which would force the retirement of The Establishment UPPER HOUSE of Congress and replace it with men carefully selected by INFORMED State officials whose duty it is to select the best men obtainable to SUPERVISE OUR GOVERNMENT.

There has been a "bloodless revolution," — as the President has expressed it, — "a peaceful and profound revolution." The Counter-revolution also can be "bloodless, — peaceful and profound."

REPEAL OF THE 17th will be a long stride in the right direction. The ground-work has been laid by the Council for Statehood through their Open Letters to the Governors and Representatives of the Sovereign States. These Open Letters exceed forty in number and in many instances are completely shocking in content.

The evidence has mounted rapidly. The TRUTH has spread to every section of the country. Dozens of books have been written and widely distributed; editors and publishers all over the country are joining us in exposing the root cause of our troubles; the corruption in Washington, so long concealed is coming to light; an INFORMED People are rising in judgment.

And an INFORMED People must go to those to whom their forefathers delegated all our sovereign powers, to clean up the mess in Washington. INFORMED People must demand that their powers BE USED, — that the government be restored to the People and the USURPERS be driven out and punished.

We believe REPEAL OF THE 17th is the KEY to the whole problem. We urge everybody reading this booklet to ponder deeply the merit of this action and the PROMPT and effective results of such REPEAL.

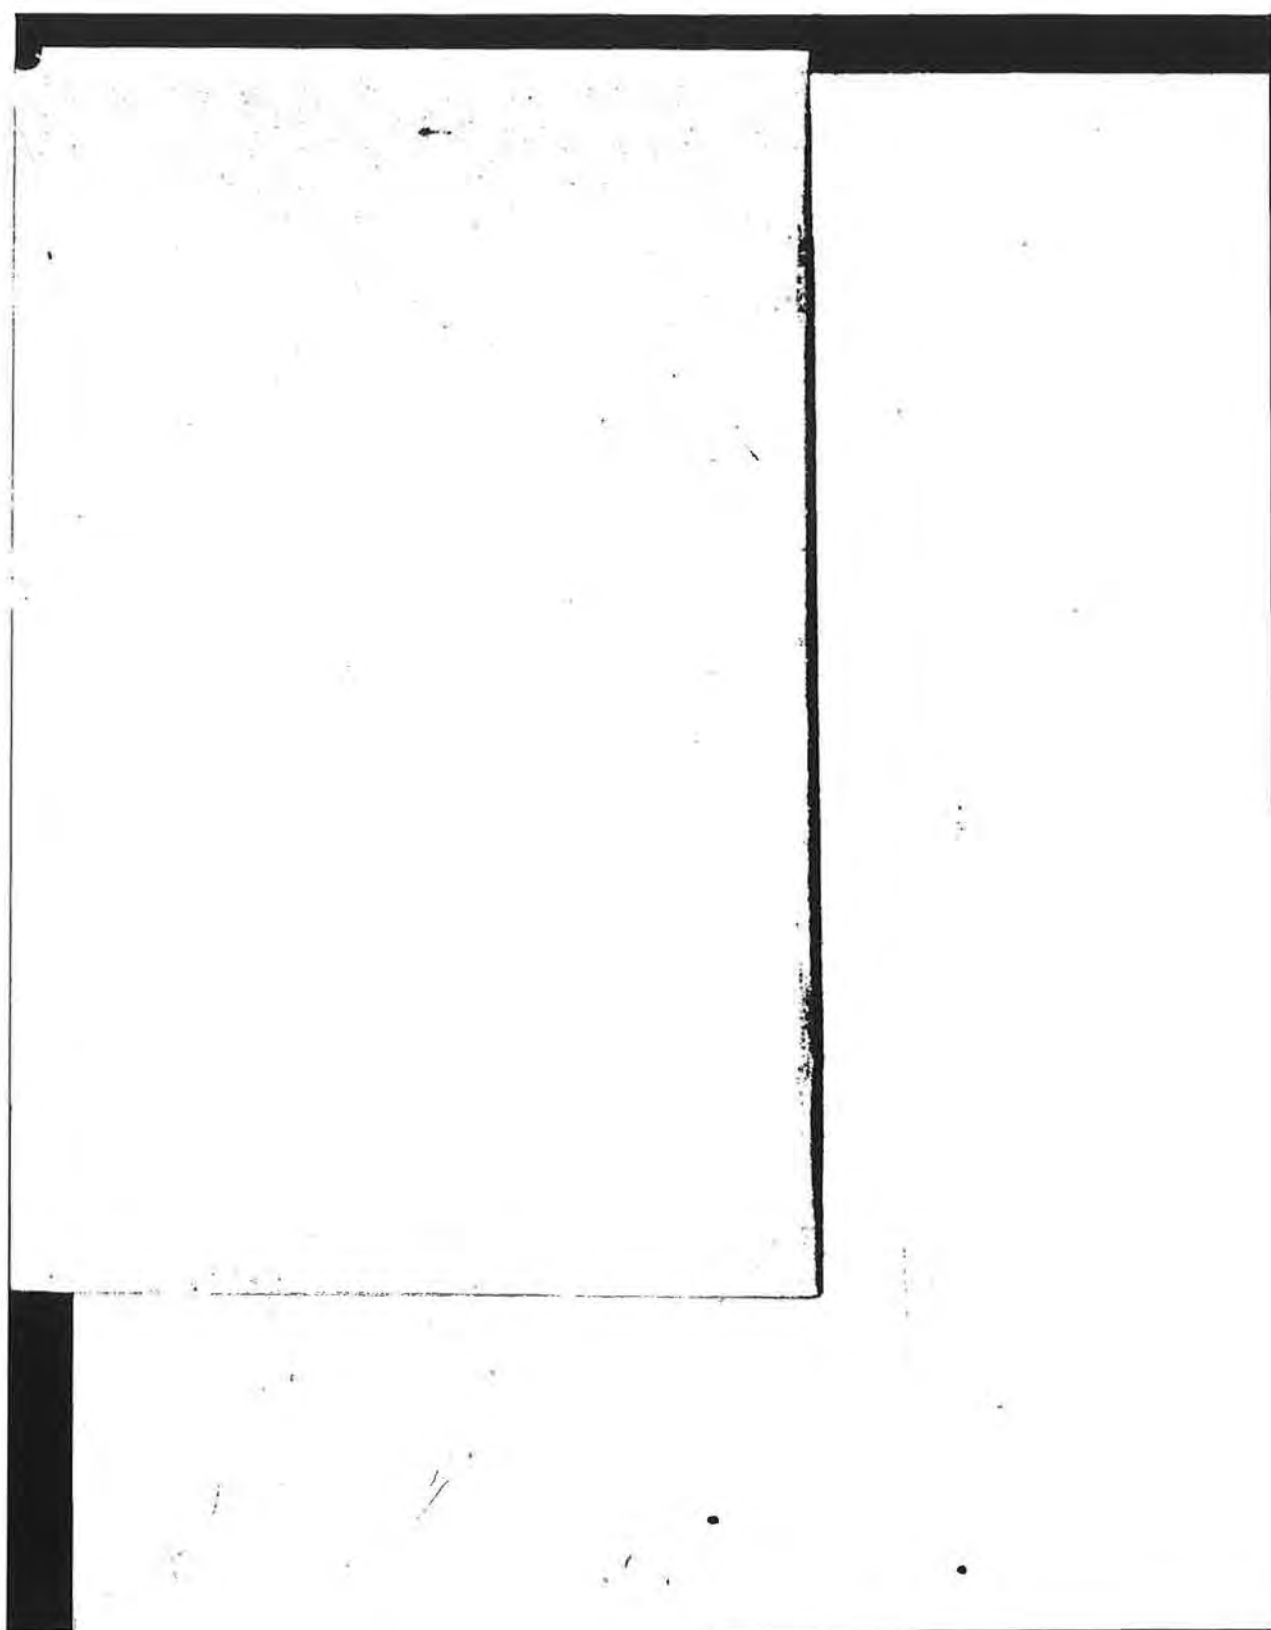

THIS IS THE PLAN AND THE GOAL OF THE

ENCLOSURE

"NEW TEAM" - SEEKS TO BECOME NEW U.S. GOVERNMENT

The April 30, 1969 issue of the Congressional Record, Page E-3527, reveals an amazing plot involving Central Intelligence Agency--"To establish an underground government within our government" as reported in the Government Employees Exchange. This scheme is known as the "new team" and reveals at long last the reason for the dismissal of Otto F. Otepka, fired from the State Department following his testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee. It appears that the new team, headed by the late Robert F. Kennedy, who as Attorney General had control of the C.I.A., actually had teamed up with the C.I.A. and "groups in the large Foundations, banks, and newspapers for the purpose of establishing a subterranean and competitive Council on Foreign Relations known as the 'New Team'."

Any political leader with a sense of responsibility, who fails to explore this situation, must be blamed for a fair share of guilt for the consequences of this evil operation.

The C.I.A. has been under fire in responsible circles for several years, but Congress does nothing about it. Congress establishes evil organizations, granting them enormous sums of tax money and allowing them to roam world-wide without any supervision whatever and with no accounting for the fabulous sums of money appropriated for their operations.

This is just one of several totally unsupervised and unaudited spenders of our tax money, which has resulted in money being drained from the States for outlandish exploits all over the world. The people have reached the limit of their endurance and a rapidly brewing tax revolt might force the States to assume their responsibilities to protect the taxpayers within their borders.

Remember that several hundred thousand casualties of undeclared wars, in which the United States had actually no grievance, have followed our involvement in the United Nations. We have another 42 "solemn commitments" similar to the Vietnam obligation. Is peace in Vietnam to be followed by a new American war in the Middle East? South Africa? Korea or elsewhere? Who is to say when we have had enough? Congress cannot and will not. What say you?

HON. JOHN R. RARICK
of Louisiana
In The House of Representatives
Wednesday, April 30, 1969

MR. RARICK: Mr. Speaker, a long-suppressed report on the misuse of the CIA to establish an underground government within our Government has been exposed today in the Government Employees Exchange.

Reportedly, the plan of the "new team" in controlling the CIA operation was to "reform" the US domestic and foreign relations through the use of an "elite" who looked to the "spirit of the future" instead of the status quo.

Apparently anyone not on the new team who uncovered its sinister plans or interfered—knowingly or unknowingly—was considered a threat and a target for compromise or elimination.

The casualty list from the intermeddlers of the new team includes PRESIDENT DIEM AND HIS BROTHER of South Vietnam, PRESIDENT JOHNSON, and OTTO F. OTEPKA.

So that our colleagues may have the opportunity to study this unprecedented exposure in power and to ponder the question, "Who is running our country?" I include the Government Employees Exchange article of April 30 and two articles from the April 16th issue:

(From the Government Employees Exchange
Washington, D.C., Apr. 30, 1969)

CIA's Vietnam Hit L.B.J., Otepka

A highly secret and unknown American involvement in Yemen was the prelude to major actions by the CIA's New Team in its November 1963 offensive against President Ngo Dinh Diem...Lyndon B. Johnson...and Otto F. Otepka, the State Department's former top Security evaluator, a former Ambassador with close ties to CIA Director, Richard Helms, revealed to this newspaper on April 25.

As readers know, the CIA New Team was set up by former Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy following the Bay of Pigs fiasco by the CIA Old Team. Mr. Kennedy recruited in the New Team many officials, not only from the CIA (such as Richard Helms) and the FBI (such as Cartha DeLoach) but also from the IRS and National Security Agency. These agencies and their top members were "knowledgeable" in the exploitation of "wire taps" and secret informers, the former Ambassador said.

Allied with the "paragovernment" (see April 16 issue) of the New Team were secret "cooperating and liaison" groups in the large foundations, banks and newspapers, the source added. In that issue, readers will recall this newspaper reported that the "coordinating role" at the New York Times was in the custody of Harding Bancroft, its Executive Vice President.

NEW TEAM READY

By August 1963, the New Team was ready for action on a wide variety of fronts. These included international affairs, especially the Vietnam War; domestic affairs, ...preparation for the 1964 Presidential election; and the "final infiltration" by the New Team enthusiasts of the State Department, AID, U S Information Agency and the Pentagon, the source said.

The basic purpose of the New Team was to reform the US domestic and foreign relations through the use of an "elite of committed, humanistic pragmatists" who looked at the "spirit of the future" instead of the status quo and the "dead letter of formal and literal law," the source continued.

"NEW TEAM" TARGETS

In the international field the main target for reform action was Ngo Dinh Nhu, the brother of President Diem, of South Vietnam. He had, the source said, the same relationship to President Diem that Robert Kennedy had to President Kennedy.

President Diem had insisted in his dealings with the "New Team" that the war in Vietnam had to be "run by the Vietnamese." Even though he used CIA resources, he would not allow the CIA to become a paragon government in Vietnam. The Diem and Nhu alliance in Vietnam thus stood in the way of "Americanizing" the war there and using the war's opportunity to transform South Vietnam along the lines of the New Team program, the source said.

ROBERT WILLIAM KOMER

While relations between President Diem and the New Team were disintegrating, a final thrust for "Americanizing" the Vietnam war was supplied by Robert William Komer, a career CIA intelligence officer who, from 1947 through 1960, had won the confidence of such top CIA officials as William Langer, Sherman Kent, Robert Amory and William Bundy.

In February, 1969, Mr. Komer was "transformed" from an intelligence into an Operations Officer when he joined the National Security Council staff at the request of McGeorge Bundy, the brother of William Bundy.

Following the "Bay of Pigs" the United States engaged in a series of "guerrilla wars" throughout the world, including Vietnam, Laos, Thailand. Most of them have secret CIA operations, especially of the "counter-insurgency" type.

"MR. KOMER'S WAR"

The most secret, however, of these CIA wars was "Mr. Komer's War" in Yemen which was a testing ground for the CIA in the use of "paramilitary and paradiplomatic techniques" the former Ambassador revealed.

Mr. Komer resorted to a major transformation of power especially at the AID in applying "paradiplomatic" techniques, the source said. Because the U S and AID could not intervene directly in Yemen, Mr. Komer set up "dummy companies" in Europe, the Middle East and in India which "bought" AID goods, "repaired" them, and sold them either back to AID or to other governments. The transactions provided not only "revenues," but most of all "cover" for CIA agents, many of whom were foreign nationals.

To conceal these operations and "protect" them from bona fide AID or other

U.S. inspectors, the CIA New Team infiltrated the AID security offices as well as its personnel, operations and inspections divisions, the former Ambassador revealed.

Mr. Komer's other great innovation was to develop and deepen the covert collaboration between the CIA New Team and Harding Bancroft, the Executive Vice President of The New York Times, the source revealed.

THE NOVEMBER "STRIKES"

The CIA war in counter-insurgency in Yemen had convinced the New Team that to carry out its program before the 1964 Presidential election, it must gain control of the actions of the South Vietnamese government in 1963. Thus, the New Team, largely on the basis of Mr. Komer's views on the reasons for both successes and failures in the Yemen, decided to move against President Diem in Vietnam. The New Team also moved against Vice President Johnson and Otto F. Otepka.

On November 1, 1963, the New Team destroyed President Diem and his brother who were "assassinated;" on November 5, 1963 the New Team moved against Otto F. Otepka who was informed that day that he was dismissed as a security officer; and on November 22, 1963, largely on the urging of Robert F. Kennedy, Don B. Reynolds was appearing before a Senate Committee to supply evidence which was expected to cast a "deep shadow" on Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, because of his relationships to Robert "Bobby" Baker, and through Baker, to James H. Hoffa, the Teamster President whom Robert Kennedy was prosecuting.

While Don Reynolds was still in the first phase of his testimony, news was flashed to the Senate Committee that President John Kennedy had been assassinated and Vice President Johnson was now President. Mr. Reynolds never finished his testimony.

Although one of the "targets" of the New Team, Lyndon B. Johnson, thus escaped immediate destruction, his Presidency was eventually "captured" by such New Team members as Walt Rostow, William Bundy and Robert William Komer, the source added.

Thus, the "momentum of the November 1963 strike" of the New Team carried on through the Presidency of Lyndon Johnson, including the "Americanization of the Vietnam War" and the dismissal of Otto F. Otepka, the source concluded.

Apr. 16, 1968 - Government Employees Exchange OTEPKA WAS MAJOR ROADBLOCK IN TAKEOVER BY A "NEW TEAM": NEW YORK TIMES LINKED TO CIA PLOT ON OFFL.

The Central Intelligence Agency's New Team, including such outsiders as Harding A. Bancroft, now the Executive Vice President of The New York Times, played a critical role in the final decision of Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy to press Secretary of State Dean Rusk to proceed with the dismissal of Otto F. Otepka as the State Department's top Security Evaluator, a former Ambassador associated with CIA Director Richard Helms informed this newspaper on April 11.

According to the source, Mr. Bancroft played a role because of his liaison and coordinating work involving the use of the organization and facilities of The New York Times on behalf of the CIA and the New Team.

Other persons who had a role included William H. Brubeck who had been the recipient of the 1960 "leak" of Top Secret information from the State Department to the campaign headquarters of John Kennedy which contributed significantly to Mr. Kennedy's narrow victory at the election polls. After Mr. Kennedy's victory, Mr. Brubeck received complete information about Mr. Otepka's role in tracing this leak, the former Ambassador revealed.

Other members of the New Team were McGeorge Bundy and his brother William Bundy, who had moved from the CIA to become the Asst. Sec. of State for East Asian and Pacific Affairs, including Vietnam.

THE NEW TEAM

The New Team at the Central Intelligence Agency was being planned by Attorney General

Robert Kennedy even before the Bay of Pigs fiasco in 1961. In fact, the former Ambassador said, the Attorney General had a special group of his own monitoring the Bay of Pigs operation to determine which persons, not yet projected for the New Team, would pass the test.

Although the Bay of Pigs was a national disaster, the source said, Robert Kennedy exploited it within the Government to accelerate building the New Team.

NEW TEAM GOALS

The New Team goals were set by the personality of Robert Kennedy and the philosophy of President John Kennedy and Sec. of Defense, Robert McNamara, the source revealed. The main exponent of the "philosophy" was Major General Maxwell Taylor, assisted by McGeorge Bundy and Walt Whitman Rostow, the former Ambassador said.

The mission of the New Team was to contest the Soviet penetration of the "Third World," the so-called non-aligned countries "paramilitary, parapolitical and paradiplomatic means." To do this the New Team was to be a "paragovernment" performing for the U S "the same kind of functions" which the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union performed for the Soviet Union, the former Ambassador revealed.

This required the New Team to penetrate every department and agency of the Executive Branch dealing with foreign policy by inserting "trusted members" of the New Team into key positions. Among these were the Offices of Security of the State Department, the military services departments, the United States Information Agency and the Agency for International Development, the source added.

NEW TEAM MEMBERS

Besides Robert Kennedy and Maxwell Taylor, other members of the New Team were Gen. Marshall S. Carter, who replaced Gen. Charles B. Cabell as Deputy Director of the CIA, and Cartha

"Duke" DeLoach, the second man in charge of the FBI. Together with Robert McNamara and Dean Rusk, the New Team, acting under control of Robert Kennedy, began the "infiltration" of the State Department and Defense Departments with CIA personnel. "Counter-insurgency" projects sprung up in every agency dealing with foreign affairs.

OUTSIDE "INSIDERS"

Besides key persons officially already in the Government, the New Team selected persons in leading banks, law firms and foundations for the penetration of the "non-governmental" apparatus of the United States, the former Ambassador revealed. Because of the paramount role of The New York Times in American life and because of the "black" assignments which it might be asked to perform for the CIA, great care was taken to select a person who had full access to every office in The New York Times and yet could conceal his own operations. This was especially important because "army" operations involving special background briefings for such top New York Times representatives as James Reston and Tom Wicker were already going on, and top New York Times reporters were in an especially good position to "uncover" the black operations.

BANCROFT'S PAST

Harding Bancroft had been originally introduced into the State Department by ALGER HISS, and, after Mr. Hiss became the head of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Mr. Bancroft served under Dean Rusk as a member of the Department's Office of Special Political Affairs, renamed the Office of United Nations Affairs. Subsequently, he took the post of General Counsel to the International Labor Organization in Geneva and then went to The New York Times, eventually to be named Executive Vice President.

During the Eisenhower administration, Harding Bancroft worked closely with Dean Rusk, President of the Rockefeller Foundation, maintaining close liaison with John Foster Dulles, the Director of the CIA.

BANCROFT'S COVER

Because Mr. Bancroft's liaison role at The New York Times required meeting with top CIA and State Department officials, especially on matters of Personnel, it was decided to provide him with cover by designating him a member of the newly created State Department Advisory Committee on International Organization Affairs, whose task it was to recommend the best qualified Americans for those international organization positions in which they could make important contributions.

Although the Advisory Committee eventually prepared a "Report," which was in itself controversial in its original draft form, the basic role of the Committee was to provide a cover for the New Team, the source revealed.

ROADBLOCK OTEPKA

One of the major "roadblocks" to the infiltration of the State Department by the CIA New Team was Otto F. Otepka, its top Security Evaluator. Mr. Otepka had already annoyed the CIA by his uncovering the activities of the CIA in using "double agents" in the Warsaw "sex and spy" scandals. Subsequently, Mr. Otepka annoyed Robert Kennedy and Dean Rusk by insisting, in December 1960, that Walt Whitman Rostow would need a "full field FBI investigation" before he could be cleared for employment in the State Department. Mr. Rostow had just completed in December a secret mission in Moscow for President-elect John Kennedy. The mission was cleared by CIA Director Allen Dulles. Previously, Mr. Rostow had established the CIA channels at the MIT in Cambridge, Mass. Harvard University professors maintained their own CIA "black" ties with Washington through the Institute, the former Ambassador asserted.

Letter inserted that was dated April 16th concerns the Antwerp "sex and kickback scandal" in which 5 AID officials presumably resigned after it was learned that a Belgian firm was allowed to overcharge the American government $250,000 for repairs on excess property. Memorandums are included indicating that evaluation reports which were damaging have been removed from some files and that job descriptions are being rewritten to allow the "mass hiring" of retired military personnel which will displace the civilian personnel and career foreign service personnel who are actually entitled to first consideration. (see page E-3528-3529 CONGRESSIONAL RECORD-April 30, 1969.

Mr. Barick is right - having read it one does wonder "who is running the government" and how long is it to be allowed. This message will have to be distributed to ALL LEGISLATORS, STATE AND NATIONAL. These despots must be brought down from their "thrones;" the manipulative strings must be severed... there must be an end to the silence which implies condoning all efforts of these agencies... the unaudited millions must come under the discerning eye and some accounting must be required... dictatorships must not be allowed to flourish... it must be brought out in the open NOW before it is too late.

AID MANIPULATES JOB RECORDS AND RATINGS

Following the revelations in this newspaper on February 21, 1968 about the "Antwerp sex and kickback scandal" and the resignation of five officials of the Agency for International Development, this newspaper received documentary evidence on April 11 of this year that three senior A.I.D. officials have since then been engaged in selectivity manipulating the personnel records of foreign service employees of that Agency. The records involved affect the promotion and "selection out" of foreign service personnel.

As readers will recall, the revelations about the "Antwerp sex and kickback scandal" were widely publicized a year ago by Senators and by Congressman. According to the accounts, a top A.I.D. official, having a "sexual affair" with a "seductive secretary" of the Belgian firm of J. & M. Andriessen, allowed the foreign company to overcharge the U.S. government by more than $250,000 for repairs on excess property.

Subsequently, this top official and a top A.I.D. Inspector became involved in "rivalry for the sexual favors of the secretary", the press reported. Trips were taken by the young lady, with other beautifuls, and the A.I.D. staff to Rome, Paris, Nice, where the "sweet life" of France and Italy was fully enjoyed. The case, uncovered in the end by Congressional staff investigators, finally involved the Belgian police and prosecutor's office.

The five A.I.D. officials who resigned because of the embarrassment of the scandal included Herbert J. Waters, who prior to his employment at A.I.D. had served as the Senatorial election campaign manager in 1954 and 1960 of Hubert H. Humphrey. Others who resigned included Paul H. Scordas, a career Army Colonel hired after retirement as a Foreign Service Reserve Officer, Class 2; and Jack K. Wall, who was the Director of the Excess Property program for A.I.D. in Europe. Mr. Wall was indicted on December 9, 1968 and is awaiting trial.

The three A.I.D. officials now revealed by documentary evidence, as having carried out a selective alteration of the restricted files and folders of foreign service personnel are H. Rex Lee, formerly the Governor of American Samoa and currently a Commissioner of the Federal Communications Commission, who was the Assistant Administrator for Administration of A.I.D. during the "Antwerp sex and kickback scandal"; Edward P. Tennant, currently the Acting Assistant Administrator for Administration and Governor Lee's successor at A.I.D.; and Joseph S. Toner, who was the Director of Personnel Administration for A.I.D. when the "Antwerp sex and kickback scandal" developed. Mr. Toner is still in the same job.

According to information received by this newspaper, one of the persons rated by Paul Scordas wrote to Governor Lee personally complaining about the rating he had received. The complaining employee, James A. Gibson, was on very good personal terms with persons associated with supporters of Hubert H. Humphrey, especially Herbert J. Waters, this newspaper was informed.

At the end of this article there is published the complete text of a memorandum, dated November 12, 1968, from Mr. Toner to Mr. Tennant concerning the disposition of the Performance Evaluation Report and the Development Appraisal Report written by Paul Scordas on James Gibson. Information available to this newspaper indicates that no other employee rated by Paul Scordas had his reports reviewed by Governor Lee.

In his memorandum of November 12 to Mr. Tennant, Mr. Toner refers to a letter of October 12, 1968 written by Governor Lee.

Readers of The Exchange will be interested to note that the Congressional Record reveals that fully one month earlier, on September 19, Governor Lee had already been confirmed by the Senate for his new post as a Commissioner of the Federal Communications Commission. Governor Lee took the oath of his new office on October 24, 1968.

In addition to receiving documentary evidence of selective treatment given to certain A.I.D. persons with good connections, this newspaper was further informed that James

M. Kearns, a Schedule C political appointee and currently the Deputy Assistant Administrator for Administration, is being sharply criticized by A.I.D. personnel allegedly for permitting the re-writing and re-defining of job descriptions and titles to permit the "mass hiring" of retired military personnel who will be employed in the near future as "Foreign Service Reserve Officers", displacing the career civil service and career foreign service personnel entitled to first consideration under a Reduction in Force program.

According to the reports, Mr. Kearns is being assisted in this project by Lester T. David, a Colonel on active duty with the Air Force who is nominally a consultant with A.I.D. but is actually in charge of the Agency's Government Property Resources Office. Retired military personnel already promised positions by Colonel David and Mr. Kearns include former A.I.D. personnel recently dismissed in the Reduction in Force program because they did not have sufficient seniority. They would return to these positions as new employees following "re-organization" of the Government Property Resources Office, this newspaper was informed.

Included among those for whom positions will be created in the "re-organization" are persons who were returned from Frankfurt and Antwerp after being "relieved" of duty in connection with the "sex and kickback" scandals there.

There follows below the full verbatim text of the memorandum of November 12, from Mr. Toner to Mr. Tennant:

"November 12, 1968.

"To: AA/A, Mr. Edward F. Tennant

"From: A/PM, Joseph S. Toner.

"Subject: Performance Evaluation.

"Report: James A. Gibson.

"Pursuant to instruction in Mr. Lee's memorandum of October 12, 1968, we are taking the following action:

"1. The Performance Evaluation Report prepared by Mr. Scordas will be removed from Mr. Gibson's restricted file and will be placed in a newly created folder which will not be for release under any circumstances.

"2. The memorandum from Mr. Lee to me dated October 12, 1968, will be placed in Mr. Gibson's restricted file as it spells out the circumstances surrounding the preparation of the Scordas Performance Evaluation Report.

"3. The Development Appraisal Report prepared by Mr. Scordas has been reviewed also and found to be equally damaging and thus has been removed from Mr. Gibson's restricted file.

CORRESPONDENCE

The following is a reproduction of an Allan Courtney Broadcast. In view of recent requests to bus teachers as well as students, it might be well to read this report thoroughly.

"This particular session consisted of a lecture by a guest speaker. The class, consisting of about thirty teachers, consultants and other board of education personnel, comprised about 24 negroes and one caucasian. It has continued for eight sessions so far this semester. All but two of these sessions consisted of lectures and discussions almost identical in content to the one reported here that I am going to quote to you from in a moment.

"Often more violent in nature, all present except one (meaning the lady who wrote this report and took the notes) are in agreement with and wholeheartedly support these ideas and this movement. She says: 'Some human relations, sensitivity, wholesome climate of understanding, living and working together, ... nice attitude for Board of Education personnel to have.'

She adds, 'I have the feeling I'm not going to live through this course, nevertheless pass it. I think they are just tolerating me. I must say that being a so-called member of this class has aroused the sensitivity in me, the sensitivity to share my class notes with you.' And then she adds, 'I have not overexaggerated anything; in fact, much of what was said in this lecture is missing because I could not write fast enough and frequently couldn't write at all, what with all the eyes on me.'"

"These are the notes she took on the 13th at a Human Relations course. The guest speaker was someone by the name of Bobby Wright of the Black Teachers' Caucus Leader of the Chicago Board of Education employee, and these are the quotes; he says:

'We began two years ago to work our way into and to try and get control of the Chicago Teachers' Union. We are succeeding in many ways. Blacks are not joining; they are dropping out. Membership has gone down. The union is a very weak one now; this is what we want. When we refuse to let the whites in our school, their former places of work, there won't be any strong union to go out on strike and help them as was the case in New York. We need members with talent. If you are an assassin, we need you.' (at which, she has in parentheses, there was much laughter.)

ENCLOSURE

One continues:

Our own goal, black control of the schools, of the city, of the society. By control, we do not mean black people having jobs in the school board, on the community boards and positions of the like - we want "black control" - Black people to govern and run the system as we see fit, not merely having a job in white man's society and helping him run his society. A democratic system is not for the black man. We have been successful; (Altgeld) we mobilized Aukgeld Gardens, boycotted the five schools and brought about the transfer of the principal and some teachers. We also did this in other places. This was our old method of acting. Now, we use any method - any means necessary - peaceful or violent. No more boycotting, requesting our demands and negotiating. Now, we just walk up to the principal, teacher or superintendent or whomever it is we are desirous of getting rid of and give them 24 hours to get out. We have done this already to ten or more principals or teachers and they left. The Board kept it quiet and saved face by giving them administrative transfers. One, however, hasn't been seen or heard from yet. You are doing it here at Parker (that's Parker High School in Chicago). Two have left; your principal and assistant principal are next. We want black control of the system, the city, the country. This means violence. Until we get what we want the school board, the city, the country will know no peace. I am prepared to fight, to die; many, probably all of us will die, but we will take many of them with us and that won't leave many of them to build up a system to take the place of the one we totally destroyed.

"We want black people to have the jobs, to make the money that the white man is making. We want their jobs in the school from principal to fireman; their jobs in the city and private industry - we want black people in these positions making this money - whether the black man can do the job or not is not our concern; black control is. We don't care if the teacher's qualified, if he's good or bad, just so he's black. Quality education is not our concern; destruction of the system & black control is. Bring the black boys back from Vietnam and leave them here to kill whites, not over there killing Vietnamese.

Chicago and all the other major cities in the country are black communities. They all should be and will be under black control. To achieve this we must destroy the community, the system, the society.

speaker was asked, what system, society, value system are we going to replace the one we destroyed with?"

"We are bent on destroying the system; I don't know and we have not thought about what we will replace it with. That will not be our problem; more than likely, we will not be around. I don't think any of us will be; but what will be left will be the aftermath of our destruction and what remains of them. We want to destroy the system; what we replace it with is unimportant. What IS important is that we gain control of it, even if it means that every one of us black people gets killed, and we probably will. When the soldiers and the tanks are in the streets, you know they'll be after us and will get us; but we'll take a lot of them with us. We are willing to die for our cause. We DON'T want reform or any part of reform, which is what they are now offering us. We want to destroy the system. Not one drop of blood was shed when King was killed. We must make up for this mistake of ours - of not shedding blood. Our job of destroying the system must begin with the school system. We want black people in every single job now held by a white person and we will get them. We will give them 24 hours to get out. The whole system is overrun with and run by Irish Catholics. We must get rid of them - the Jews also - we want a black person in the position held by every single Irish Catholic and Jew; whether they do a good job or not is not our concern. Whether they give quality education or not in the schools is not our concern. We will shoot any white person that is in or that comes into our schools. There must be and will be violence. We must destroy the system and this is the way to do it. Once they become aware of our movement, they will probably try to contain us by cutting off our income, our Federal Money, A.P.C. relief and Federal Salaries. This will hurt us; but, if they do cut us off we do not have to worry. There are countries - China and Cuba, who are willing to and who have offered to finance us during our revolution and, if we are successful, they are willing to finance us in setting up a new system. Black people come first; NOT America, nor patriotism, nor duty - nothing. We must stop the vandalism in our schools for this reason: the people who come in to repair the damage - the glaziers, carpenters, are white men. We do not want to give white men more work so they can earn more money. We do NOT want integration, we want BLACK CONTROL; and to get this we must destroy. We don't want reforms; we can get that now, as we are, just by raising enough hell and making a loud noise that they give in to us hoping and thinking it will pacify us. We can get what we want like this but this is reform and we want black control. Black communities will certify their OWN teachers; pick and choose the people WE WANT in our schools and our communities. Ninety per cent of the principals, teachers, engineers, etc. are Irish Catholics and Jews and we must get rid of them.

"At this point he was asked about his job now that he was so openly active in this movement and he said: 'I told them that if they threaten me or take away my job I would kill them. Article was put in the union paper by the whites, not by us. It was put there by them in order to inform other whites of what is happening. But we do not have to worry. As always-- it was read by a few, angered a few, and then forgotten about; nothing more was done. The whites won't do anything as they always don't do anything. We are not worried that they will counteract our movement; the whites are too busy helping and being kind to the blacks because they're underprivileged or are too busy trying to cover up to smother knowledge of the current or of the damage we are doing or trying to give us whatever we demand - too busy trying to integrate, too busy believing that we want integration that they will pay little attention to us, other than to excuse or dismiss us as merely being another group of unhappy blacks that must somehow be made happy. By the time the whites shake their usual complacency and it dawns on them that we are out to destroy, it will be too late for them. Class dismissed."

Alan Courtney continues: "I have just quoted to you from the notes of a teacher in a Chicago High School, the only white teacher in a group of about 30 other teachers who are blacks, attending a special course called the Human Relations Course . . . at Parker High School, November 13, 1968, at which time Bobby Wright was the guest speaker who said what we have quoted to you from." Mr. Courtney broadcasts from station WIOD in Miami.

This article was also carried in Dr. Fernando Penabaz's "Insight In The News."

Perhaps it is time to examine in depth what Mr. Wright has said and then study what is happening in YOUR schools. Which way are the jobs going? What is the quality of education - not only as to former years but as to what it should be. . .

Certainly his statements are geared to antagonize the listener but can they be ignored as the "paranoid" ravings of a few" or is there sufficient truth in the statements to impel further investigation in YOUR community? How many people are aligning themselves with these views while giving lip-service to integration?

Aside from investigation, now it is doubly important to LISTEN TO YOUR CHILDREN TELL OF THEIR DAY AT SCHOOL AND WHAT THEY LEARNED. TAKE THE TIME TO READ THEIR TEXT BOOKS AND CHECK THEIR HOMEWORK. ATTEND SCHOOL MEETINGS AND BECOME FULLY INFORMED IN YOUR COMMUNITY.

In many areas where there has been trouble parents are being asked to present any information to the school board...if you know something that will help, by all means let them know. Let's show the Bobby Wrights of this world that there is something more constructive to be done than ask for assassins to join the group and tear down systems without care as to what replaces them...

IT'S YOUR LIFE, YOUR CHILDREN, YOUR BUSINESS, YOUR AMERICAN IT CAN BE THE BEST IN THE WORLD IF YOU PROTECT IT!

DAYTON JOURNAL HERALD
OCT 11, 1969

I have been under the impression that the members of my race were trying to tear up this country, but since the country has been made the laughing stock of this world by the way it treated the marvelous Green Berets, I have decided that the Negro is really small change in the defeat of this country... ~~ARTHUR THOMAS~~

Arthur Thomas may be able to call the superintendent of Dayton schools (names) and cause trouble everywhere, but that is hardly worth writing about.

Mr. Thomas has projected the system of "all-black" schools, administered and taken over by "all-black" personnel. The thing Mr. Thomas does not know is that our race is a multicolored one. We have those who are black, brown, yellow, olive, white, etc. We have thought this over, and we wondered if his system were put into action, why wouldn't the brown, yellow and white skins demand equal schools.

The question then arises, where is the money coming from? Congress would have to spend millions of dollars for a new census to establish the color of each student, and millions more (would have to be spent) for new schools. I assume that the teachers would donate their services, as I cannot imagine the overburdened taxpayers spending their hard-earned money for such a ridiculous project.

I am sure that if the Model Cities Planning Council would hand in their resignations (in protest if Mr. Thomas is fired from his job as director of the Model Cities education project), they would most certainly be accepted with alacrity. The council would then be flooded with applications from people who would really strive to make Dayton a better and more prosperous city...

At approximately 9 p.m., 2/16/73, a Negro male broke through a glass door at Dr. Pittman's residence, 410 Edgewood Court, Lancaster, S. C., and robbed him and then beat him and his wife. Dr. PITTMAN later died but his wife was not seriously hurt.

The local law enforcement authorities believe two Negro males were involved but to date have made no arrests. Local law enforcement agencies and the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) immediately entered the case to assist local authorities.

Assistance and cooperation of the FBI and its facilities were immediately offered to the local authorities. They advised that they appreciated the offer of assistance and would not hesitate requesting help from the FBI if necessary.

At approximately 9:50 p.m. on 2/17/73, [redacted] telephonically contacted the Columbia Office of the FBI and advised that [redacted] appeared to be upset and emotional in the murder of Dr. PITTMAN.

[redacted] requested that the FBI take part in the case and stated that he was sure that the local law enforcement agencies would never find out who was responsible for the murder and he would have to take the law into his own hands. He stated he believed he had information about the murder and if the FBI did not enter the case he would write the President and the S. C. Senators.
